No. 895, dated Simla, 14th May 1883.

From—R. LOGAN, Esq., Offg. Under Secretary to the Government of India,
Department of Finance and Commerce,

To—ADAM ANTHONY, Esq.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 21st April 1883, in which you enquire, with reference to the Resolution of the Government of India, in the Home Department, No. 1649, dated 19th October 1876, whether you can join with others in a representation to the Government of India concerning certain orders issued by the Government in regard to benefits offered by the Roorkee College of Civil Engineering.

2. In reply, I am to say that as the matter about which you wish to petition Government is not connected with your position as a servant of Government, you are not, under the Rules contained in the Resolution of the 19th October 1876, precluded from joining with others in submitting your petition.
