Financial Despatch to Her Majesty's Secretary of State, No. 197, dated 27th July 1883.

Despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State, No. 299, dated 18th October 1883.

RESOLUTION.

THE papers read in the preamble relate to a scheme recently sanctioned by Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, of State life insurance, to be confined for the present to employes of the Postal Department. Arrangements are being made to introduce the rules for working the scheme from the 1st February 1884; and under these rules every postal employé who effects an insurance must submit to a medical examination. The Governor General in Council is pleased to direct that such examination shall be held by the Civil Surgeon without any fee; and that in places unprovided with a Civil Surgeon, the duty of examining shall devolve upon any Government Medical Officer under Army Circular* No. 189 of 1881.

* Copy enclosed.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded

India Army Circular 1881.

Medical officers of the British and Indian services bound to give their professional services without remuneration when required by proper authority in the interests of Government.

1881. Officers of the Army Medical Department and of the Indian Medical Service are not entitled to extra remuneration for the performance of any duty prescribed by regulation which may be required of them by proper authority in the interests of Government.

If the services of a medical officer in military employ are temporarily needed for Government purposes in other departments, they are to be asked for through the military authorities, and no fee for such special or extra duty is admissible.

Similarly, in cases of emergency, military authorities are entitled to apply officially to local heads of departments for the gratuitous services of medical officers in civil employ.
