Telegram from the Acting Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Revenue and Agricultural department, Calcutta, dated Fort St. George, 28th November 1885, No. 600.

To reduce cost of emigration to French colonies we propose to amalgamate Consular Agencies, Pondicherry and Karikal, under a single officer from middle of December next. Your sanction and a very early answer requested by wire.

Telegram from the Secretary to the Government of India, Revenue and Agricultural department, to the Acting Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Calcutta, 10th December 1885.

Your telegram 28th November. Agencies Pondicherry, Karikal, proposals generally approved. Please submit further particulars about saving effected.

ORDER—dated 11th December 1885, No. 2899, Public.

The offices of the Consular Agents at Karikal and Pondicherry will be amalgamated with effect from the 13th December next and placed, pending further orders, under a single officer, Colonel Fischer, now Consular Agent at Karikal, who will supervise emigration from Negapatam in addition to that from the two above-mentioned French ports.

2. Colonel Fischer will now report, in communication with the Collectors of Tanjore and South Arcot, what savings can be effected in office establishments in consequence of this amalgamation, and whether he considers it advisable that the Consular Agent should, in future, reside at Pondicherry or Karikal.

3. He will draw the special allowance attached to the more highly paid of the two amalgamated offices and travelling allowance under the rules for journeys to and from Pondicherry, Karikal, and Negapatam.

4. His Excellency the Governor of the French Settlements in India will be informed, in the Political department, of the arrangements now made.

5. In working out the details of the scheme now sanctioned, the Consular Agent at Karikal will bear in mind that the object of the changes introduced is economy. A proposition statement should accompany the proposals made.

6. The Collectors of Tanjore and South Arcot will submit to Government any suggestions they may have to make in connection with these proceedings.

The proposals now to be made can therefore be considered at leisure.

On receipt of the proposed details, the Hon.
Mr. Sullivan's proposal to ask India for a personal allowance to Col. Sheruan can be considered. As pointed out by the Hon. Mr.
Mastor, the net saving to the State, as distinguished from the Immigration Budget, is but
Rs. 200 unless that is Col.
Fischer, proposes substantial reductions in office staffs.

The office of Consular Agents at Kanikal + Pondicherry will be amalgamated with effect from the 13th Dec next & placed
