ENCLOSURE No. 1. ✓

From J. M. CAMPBELL, Esq., Compiler of the Gazetteer, to the Chief Secretary to Government, General Department, Bombay, dated Bombay Secretariat, 4th October 1878, No. 587.

In going through the Wilson Catalogue of the Mackenzie Manuscripts, I find notices of many papers likely to supply useful materials on the subjects marginally noted for the statistical accounts of several of the Southern Maratha Country, Deccan and Konkan Districts.

2. The Mackenzie Manuscripts are in Madras under the care of Dr. Oppert, the Professor of Sanskrit in the Madras University. I have already written to Dr. Oppert, who was kind enough to send from the Mackenzie Library a copy of a manuscript—history of Goa. But, as this is so very much larger a request, I think that I cannot well address Dr. Oppert direct.

3. I would venture to suggest that the Madras Government might be asked that, if there is no objection, such of the manuscripts mentioned in the accompanying list as are available might be entrusted to me for six months.

4. While under my charge I will take the greatest care of them and return them with the least possible delay.

No. 103. To the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay, dated Ootacamund, 26th October 1878, No. 1583.

In acknowledging your letter, No. 3132, dated 14th October instant, I am directed to express the inability of His Grace the Governor in Council to comply with the request made. Every facility will be given for the inspection of the Manuscripts where they are and for their being copied, but the originals must remain in the Library under Professor Oppert's care.

In going through the various volumes of the Mackenzie Manuscripts, I find notes of many papers likely to supply useful materials on the subjects marginally noted for the statistical accounts of several of the southern Maratha country, Deccan and Konkan districts.
