submit that they do not form cogent reasons, for rejecting the Bill altogether.

That unless some measures, providing for effective check and control on the Religious and charitable Institutions in this Presidency, a majority of which are now mismanaged, be speedily adopted, your memorialists apprehend that the properties appertaining to these Institutions will gradually disappear.

Your memorialists, therefore, pray that your Excellency in Council will be pleased to give the subject the consideration which it deserves and confer on the Hindu Community of this Presidency the advantages of a Salutory Amendment in the direction above pointed out.

They beg to subscribe.

Your Excellency's most obedient and humble servants.
