ANNUAL REPORT

ON THE

WORKING OF THE IMMIGRATION DEPARTMENT

FOR THE YEAR

1887.

REPORT
ON THE WORKING OF THE
IMMIGRATION DEPARTMENT

FOR THE 1887.

A/104

24th February 1888.

To

The Honourable

The Acting Colonial Secretary.

I have the honour to report as follows on the working of the Immigration Department during the year 1887. The scheme of the report and the arrangement of the statistical tables is the same as heretofore.

IMMIGRATION.

Requisitions. 2. On the 1st day of last year there remained requisitions for 180 labourers from Madras, made in the two previous years, which had not been satisfied.

During the course of last year, 7 new requisitions were made for 435 labourers from Madras.

The following statement shows the number of labourers requisitioned during the last 5 years:

	Calcutta	Madras
1883 ...	955	911
1884 ...	735	820
1885 ...	none	225
1886 ...	none	425
1887 ...	none	435

The requisitions to hand this year are already 230.

The Emigration Agency in India. 3. It will be noticed that during the last three years no requisition was made for labourers from Calcutta, and, as this state of things appears likely to continue at present, the question of closing the Agency arose. It was not thought prudent however to trust to one Agency only, moreover numbers of time-expired labourers continue to be sent to the care of our Agent at Calcutta. The Special Committee of the whole Council, to whom the question was referred, thought it would be inadvisable to close the Emigration Agency at Calcutta, but recommended that, as soon as practicable, the same footing as that of Madras be given to the Agent at Calcutta, with Rs 5000 as Agent and Medical Inspector, with Rs 500 added if he is to act as Medical Attendant to the Depot.

Annexure No. 1.

Immigration. 4. Only one batch of immigrants arrived last year consisting of 180 male labourers, 12 boys, and 73 women and girls; so that all the requisitions made during the course of last year were still unsatisfied at the end of the year.

There occurred no deaths during the very short voyage of the S. S. Ackbar, by which these immigrants arrived. One of the engaged men, however, died on board shortly after their arrival here, and before they were landed at the Quarantine Station.

This gives a death rate of 3.7 per thousand Immigrants embarked, against 1.3 in 1886, & 5.5 in 1885.

The following is a résumé of annexure No. 1.

	M.	W.	B.	G.	Infants.

Died at the Bell Buoy ...	1
Landed ...	179	58	10	14	2	1

Of the 58 women only 20, or 34 per cent, were accompanied by their husbands; in 1886 the ratio was 41 per cent.

The following statement shows the proportion of females to males among the Immigrants embarked at Madras during the last 5 years.

	Centesimal ratio of total females embarked to total males.	Centesimal ratio of adult females embarked to adult males.
1883 ...	49.3	44.3

1885 ...	45.9	39.4
1886 ...	45.9	37.2
1887 ...	38.0	32.2

It will be seen that the proportion was considerably smaller last year than in the preceding ones. In fact the proportion of adult females to adult males is lower than the legal minimum (33 of 100); the proportion of total females to total males is, however, above that minimum.

The following statement shows that of those immigrants, 31, or 11 per cent, had already been in the Colony. In 1886 that ratio was 14 per cent.

Wages and Rations.

5. I annex a copy of the Government scale of wages and allowances according to which all these Immigrants were engaged. For the convenience both of servants and masters, the Government allowance of salt fish is permitted to be replaced, on the Estates, by an equivalent value of rice and dholl. The matter is enquired into at the half yearly inspections, and, if any servants are found to be dissatisfied, the Government scale is enforced.

Report of the Shah
Jehan Committee.

6. The recommendations of the "Shah Jehan" Committee for improvements in the immigration service and the quarantine of new immigrants, have now been all brought into operation. The records of the voyage, required by the Indian Emigration Act of 1883, have all been printed in a convenient form for use on boardship, and issued to the Emigration Agents in India. The system may now be considered administratively complete.

Employment of Steamers. 9. The charges introduced before the departure of the fifth vessel have diminished the expenditure to be incurred by steamers, and, in a less degree, also by sailing ships, while increasing the efficiency of the service. It is hoped that by forethought and management a very considerable saving may in future be effected under the head of return passages and alimuntary allowances to surgeons and compounders. The employment of the British India Steamers which have now been chartered three times in succession for returned emigrants, and once for new immigrants, ensures short voyages, good accommodation and greater safety.

New Proclamation and Government Notice under the Passenger Act of 1885. 10. These changes have been embodied in a new Proclamation, No. 8 of 7th February 1885, which, it is hoped, has put the questions connected with return emigrant ships on a thoroughly sound and economical footing for some years to come. The same gazette contains the rules relating to surgeons and compounders.

Records of return voyage.	11. A copy has been printed of return required in have been printed in a convenient	late Manual of Instructions for surgeons superintending emigrants; and the records of the Indian Emigration Act form for use on board ship.

Immigrants paying their own passages. 12. The rate for Immigrants paying their own passages viz: Rs 33 for Calcutta and Madras, is the same as that fixed in 1881.

The tender just accepted for the conveyance of the immigrant returning to India this month (February) at Government expense in a first class steamer, is Rs 33 for Calcutta and Rs 32 for Madras, everything included. On this occasion therefore there is no loss on these free passages to Government, the immigrant paying in to the Immigration Office the exact sum which is paid for him to the ship.

13. Immigrants who leave by other than chartered vessels with a passport from the Office are not gainers from a money point of view; but, on the other hand, they can leave by the first opportunity and by any route, and are independent of the Government regulations and supervision. They have to provide and cook their own food and must sleep on deck.

The number of such immigrants in 1887 was 28 per cent (statute adults) of the whole number of those paying their own passages, who left under the control of this Department. In 1886 the ratio was 64 per cent. The great difference in favour of 1887 is no doubt largely due to the last two vessels being registered as going to Madras and Calcutta. The Indians previously chartered Arab steamers going to Bombay to chartered steamers proceeding direct to Madras or Calcutta.

has been satisfactorily settled. Immigration Department and prosecute (See Annexure No. 7) An example has already been made which will it cause the practice to cease, at least for the present. When the Labour Law is amended the words "or Agent" should be inserted after "Master" in article 162. When the decision is made it is too late to detain the Master, who moreover probably knows nothing of the law. An immigrant was lately arrested for attempting to leave without a passport. The Master of the vessel, which was about to sail—declined to refund the passage-money, and the ship left. The agent also refused to compensate the Indian for the mistake he had been induced to make, and the man, who did not know the law, besides being separated from his wife and child, had to pay another passage by the next steamer.

Annexures Nos. 8 and 9

Savings of Indian Emigrants. 15. The money taken away by Indian emigrants amounted last year, according to their statement, to Rs. 103,150, against Rs. 139,826 in 1886. This is an average of about Rs. 110 per non-pauper statute adult. In 1886 the average was Rs. 126.

The average amount taken away by non-pauper statute adults to Calcutta, Madras and Bombay is about the same as in 1886, the exact figures being:

Calcutta	Rs. 97.
Madras	98.
Bombay	151.

But last year some money was also taken at Pondicherry and Tranquebar giving an average per non-pauper statute adult of Rs. 355 to the former and Rs. 61 to the latter place.

Deposits made by the Indians in the Savings Bank. 16. The Savings Bank was largely used by Indians on Sugar Estates in 1887 as heretofore.

The tables illustrating this subject were received too late for comment and will be found in Annexure No. 10.

Population on Sugar Estates. 17. The total population (Indians and others) on Sugar Estates, on the 30th June 1887, compiled from the returns supplied by employers under Article 35 of Ordinance 12 of 1878, is given in the following statement, where it is compared with that of the four preceding years.

Number of Estates. 18. It will be noticed from the foregoing return that there is an apparent decrease of 11 in the number of estates up to the end of June last. The actual decrease was 3, caused by the closing of "Savinia" (Grand Port), "La Louise" (Plaines Wilhelms) and "Ste. Marie" (Savanne). "Surinam" Estate has been closed since the 30th June 1886. The remaining difference in the figures, up to the end of June 1886, is due to labourers camps on estates that have ceased to have a separate existence being comprised under the name of the Estate to which they now belong.

Annexure No. 11.

An official list of estates as defined by Art. 14 with the names of the detached camps, has been carefully prepared and will be revised half-yearly. It is hoped that this will be of use to other Departments and promote uniformity.

* Under this heading, the figures in the first four columns represent the number of half yearly returns furnished by Sugar Estates (and by other proprietors). The figure in the last column represents the number of half yearly returns furnished by Sugar Estates, or the period ended 30.6.87, was 143.

Engaged labourers. 19 and much decreased, but the number is now 54 instead of 46 per cent.

As will be seen from the following statement this decrease has taken place in all the districts except in Savanne, Grand Port and Moka, where there has been a small increase. In Rivière du Rempart the total population on estates has increased, while the number of engaged labourers has diminished. In 1886 it was quite the reverse:—

The next table shows that labourers per Estate has much increased, this is however, entirely owing to the new way of reckoning Estates (See note on p. 17). Had the old system been followed, the average would have been exactly the same as in 1886.

Mortality on Sugar Estates. 22. The total number of deaths on Sugar Estates last year was 8575 against 8684 in 1886, and the millennial ratio of deaths to the population on estates on 30th June 1886, was 29.9 against 24.8 in 1886. The death-rate for all classes of the population during 1887 was 34.4.

By Sugar estates are here meant those classed as such by the Registrar General. In the next report the Registrar General's list will correspond with the official list of this Department.

This death rate although much higher than in 1886 is less than the average of the four years preceding that year.

It was:	30.7	1885

The decrease has taken place in the Indian as well as in the general population, but the proportion of Indians convicted is on the increase; last year it reached 72 per cent of the total number of convictions; in 1886, it was only 67 per cent.

GENERAL.

Orphans. 34. The number of orphans under the guardianship of the Protector of Immigrants, according to a book kept since January 1879, was, on the 31st December 1887, 229 boys and 115 girls.

Of these, only 40 are immigrants, the rest were born in the Colony.

The new Central Prison. 37. The new Prison Ordinance, in addition to a Prison Board for trying offences against prison discipline, provides two official visitors to report to the Governor monthly, the Protector of Immigrants and the Chief Medical Officer. I cannot help here expressing my conviction of the importance, on economic and administrative grounds, of completing the Beau Bassin Prison within as short a delay as possible.

Conclusion. 38. In signing this report I have much pleasure in testifying to the present efficiency of both the divisions of the Immigration Department; that for carrying out the provisions of the Labour Ordinance of 1878, and that for the introduction and repatriation of immigrants.

Detention of Immigrants who leave the Colony without authority

Agreement made between the Protector of Immigrants and the Inspector General of Police for carrying out the Instructions of Government conveyed in Letter A 1435/87

PART I.

Preamble.—1. The Immigration Department at present sees that immigrants do not leave the Colony in ships chartered by Government, unless they are borne on the passenger list of returning immigrants prepared for the Immigration Agent in India and handed to the Master of the vessel before her departure. (Art. 162 Ord. 12 of 1878.)

2. No immigrant can legally leave the Colony in a vessel not chartered by Government, without a passport from the Protector; the Master of the vessel being liable to a fine of Rs. 200 if he allows an immigrant to embark without such passport. The Police may take any such immigrant out of the vessel and hand him over to the Protector. (Art. 161 and 162 idem.)

3. The Protector has power to depute an officer of his department to go on board any passenger ship, whether chartered by Government or not, and inspect the "passengers" (or rather "immigrants"—See articles 161 and 162 of the Ord. in regard to their possession of a passport, and give instructions to any officer of the vessel, i.e. to take the man on board, and hand him over to the Protector; (Gov. Ord. 116 of 1880, Sec. 30.)

4. The Immigration Department, the Immigration Department on board a ship does not appear on the passenger list, or on the Protector's will, on the request of the ship any such immigrant; and, on his behalf his Department will bring him before the
