SURVEY OFFICE,

Bellary
October 1889.

From

H. Gumpertz Esq
Deputy Superintendent,
No. II Party, Madras Survey,

To

The Superintendent, Madras Survey, Madras.

SIR,

I have the honor to request you will be so good as to refer to Government the question whether I am at liberty to buy land in Mysore.

I had no doubt on the point, but I see in the pamphlet of rules and orders on the subject just sent me, at page 5, para 7 that—"Civil Servants and military officers in the actual service of the Crown in India are prohibited from holding lands in a Native State, for any purpose whatever."

The question is what is meant by Civil Servants; previously "Covenanted Civil Servants," Native of India appointed under the Statute "Cory Rules" and "uncovenanted Officers" have all been mentioned and employ has been distinguished as "Civil" and "military"; the wording "Actual Service of the Crown" being somewhat peculiar.

It appears to be that "Civil Servants" means only those belonging to the Conventional Civil Service, for the following reasons:-

1st. In Madras Government order, Revenue Department, of 1st December 1882, No 1357, is published Extract of a despatch from the Secretary of State, para 4 of which runs as follows:-

"As regards the question whether a Conventional Madras Civilian may hold land in Mysore, Coorg, Cochin or Travancore, I agree with your Government in viewing with disapproval the holding by Conventional Civil Servants of lands in Native States and I consider that the same objection applies to the holding of such lands by military officers in the actual Service of the Crown in India."

Active service

I have underlined the words which seem to me important. It will be seen that the question referred to the Secretary of State was solely as to Conventional Civil Servants; the peculiar wording "Actual Service of the Crown" again appears; and as the pamphlet above referred to purports only to give (para 1, page 4.)

"a brief summary of the existing rules and of the more important interpretations which have been placed upon certain of them by the Government of India with the approval of Her Majesty's Secretary of State" and not to lay down anything new, I think it may be inferred that para 7 page 5 is based on the above quoted despatch from the Secretary of State.

2nd. It is well known that 2 Colonies for Anglo-Indians have been founded by the late Mr. D. P. White; that he and other Govt. Servants held land in them; that the purpose for which they were founded was mainly, if not entirely, agricultural and that so far from there having been any secrecy in the matter, the utmost publicity was courted and the Settlements have been publicly visited by high Government officials, if not by the Governor himself.

On my retirement from the Service I contemplate settling Notes.

Were any orders passed regarding the purchase of land in these Colonies by persons not in the service?

in India, at least for some years, and this question arises in view of a possible purchase by me of part or the whole of a Casuarina plantation; but after seeing this pamphlet, though I believe the view I take is correct and the prohibition refers only to Converted Civilians, I have felt myself precluded from going further in the matter without referring it to Government.

It has already been decided that Survey Officers are not in appointments "ordinarily held by Converted or Commissioned Officers of the 2 classes aforesaid" - i.e., Converted Civil Servants and Military Officers in Civil Employ.

I have the honor to request you will do me the favor to send up this letter in Extens and I shall be much obliged by orders being passed on it and communicated to me at the earliest possible date.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most Obedient Servant
