The Honorable J. F. Price

re re

THE humble Memorial of Mohamed Munir Khan, B. A., grandson of the late Syfud Dowlah Bahadur, the shadi grandson of Nawab Walajah of the Carnatic and shadi cousin of Azimud Dowlah Bahadur, the first Nawab of the Honorable the East India Company.

Most humbly bringeth the following for Your honor's kind consideration and favourable disposal.

That Your honor's Memorialist is a lineal descendant of the first ally of the English in India viz Muhammad Ali Walajah of the Carnatic through his shadi son and grandson the late Syful Mulk and Syfud Dowlah Bahadurs, both of whom were enjoying pensions of Rs50,000 per annum. Moreover the former of the two had special consideration shown to him by the then emperor of Delhi, as is stated in his Memoirs written by the last titular Nawab of the Carnatic.

That their belief in the generosity of the Merciful Government is proved by lapse of time in as much as their descendants are enjoying pension even to day! They are quite aware of the fact that no other power would have maintained their family for so long a period. But the multiplication of its members and the consequent division of their pensions has nearly brought them to the brink of poverty. Even now they trust in the generosity of their Protectors and believe that they will shield the family from the approaching poverty as they protected their great ancestor from his enemies in the Fort of Trichinopoly in by gone days.

That Dr: E. Balfour the late Government Agent to the family foreseeing clearly that pensions will no longer enable them to keep up the position which they, under the patronage and protection of the British Raj, maintained for nearly a century advised the parents of the memorialist to impart English education on their young children, assuring them that special consideration and favour of the benevolent Government will be shown to them and that they will be given higher appointments in the state. After the death of the Memorialist's father in 1875 a meagre pension was awarded to the Memorialist whereupon his mother, recollecting the kind advice of the agent made up her mind to spend what she had to impart English education on her son, entertaining at the same time the hopes created by the above mentioned Doctor. By a series of success Your honor's Memorialist became the first graduate in the whole Carnatic Family.

That Your honor's Memorialist begs to submit that as regards his attainments and conduct Mr. D. Duncan, Principal of the Presidency Collage and Shamsul-Ulama Hafiz Muhammad Luthfullah, Saheb, the Arabic and Persian Examiner of the University can best be consulted, and that for his family connections Col: T. O. Underwood is the best authority.

Under these circumstances Your honor's memorialist begs that Your honor will show him special favour, and thus encourage the other members of the loyal family to educate their sons and find other honorable means to maintain the position which is held by them for centuries together. Your honor's memorialist begs to state that he hears that certain statutory civil service appointments are to be made this year. He and the descendants of Syfulmulk Bahadur are full of sanguine hopes that Your honor will show him special favour and kindness by securing for him an appointment in that service. For which act of generosity they shall ever pray.

Your Memorialist,

Mohammed Munir Khan B. A., of the Carnatic Family.
