Section 32 of Act VI of 1886.

Extracts

The Rev. W. H. G. Herre, Evangelical Lutheran Mission, Bangalore. Letter dated 25th August 1889.

In order to be able to continue both Registers,
I shall be thankful for the return of the book
forwarded to you as soon as possible.

The middle of the book containing entries referring to the rite of Confirmation, I should prefer receiving back the book forwarded.

The Rev. C. P. Rice, London Missionary Society,
Bangalore. Letter dated 22nd August 1889.

5. I also desire to know whether further entries may be made in the Registers and records sent to you, after they have been examined and verified and returned; and if so under what restrictions.

The Rev. Sidney Long, London Missionary Society, Bangalore. Letter dated 30th August 1889.

If books are sent to your office, how should entries be made in the meantime as such books are returned?

Also will the same books be useable here after for new entries?

The Rev. Sidney Long's letter dated 9th September 1889.

I have the honor to ask if and how, in the case of current registers not being sent for verification, the entries now contained in such registers can be validated hereafter.

(2) In the case of Registers which are not full, but which it is desirable to close, will they be marked as closed by the ~~missionaries~~ if a request to that purpose accompanies them; whilst should current registers be voluntarily sent with the same be left open for entries subsequent to the examination and return of such registers?

His letter dated 25th September 1889.

(4) I request that they (registers) may ultimately be returned to the custody of the missionary in Coimbatore.

~~(5) In communication from your office~~
At 200 dated 31st August 1889 I was told that current registers need not be sent. Hence I am retaining 6 current registers presuming that they will be able to be admitted for validation hereafter.

(6) One register of baptisms and burials of this mission ~~has~~ have disappeared. If I discover it or can obtain a statement of its entries I shall submit it as soon as possible.
