OFFICE NOTE.

From

THE CHIEF SECRETARY,

To

The Editor of the Glossary

According to the September and October reports, the progress made with the Government Glossary is 80 Columns completed per mensem. At this rate the book will be out of the Editor's hands in 19 months from the 31st October 1889 on which date 300 of the 1800 Columns of which the book is to consist had been passed as ready for book form. This means that the work would be in hand throughout 1890-91. The Government desires to know whether Dr. Maclean can now fix a term within which the Glossary can be finished & the expenditure on it stopped.

SUBJECT.

According to the 1st & 2nd. Reports the entry progress is 80 papers completed per mensem. The book will be out in 19 months from 31 Oct 89. It will go on through all through next official year. I think Mr. Macleans must be asked today now whether he can fix a term for it to be finished for the expenditure to cease.
