From

The Revd. Julius Knoblach,
Chairman of the Basel German Mission in India, Calicut.

The Registrar General of Births, Deaths & Marriages, Madras.

Sir,
In compliance with Section 18 of Act No. IV of 1886
I have the honor to request you will be kind enough to favour the licensed missionaries of our Society with the necessary register books & forms for registration of Births & Deaths.

2. I may add, that on all our Stations register books have been kept from the beginning of our missions, which may be inspected at any time, but cannot be sent away.
They are the property of each Station.

3. As to the registration of marriages we have been following the arrangements made by Government register books filled in can be despatched at any time. A copy of entries has however been sent in to the Senior Parish Registrar of the District every year.

I have the honor to be

Sir
