by disposing off his landed property and jewels and promises not to contract any more debts in future. Ahmad Ali Khan belongs to the Carnatic family and has always borne a good character.
He should be able to clear off his debts in four or five years and his indebtedness so far has not interfered with his duties as a public servant. The Board accordingly request that Government will be pleased to sanction the retention of Ahmad Ali Khan in the Government Service and in his present post.

2. Ahmad Ali Khan has furnished a complete schedule of his present liabilities, from which it appears that he is indebted to the extent of Rs 3007-14-8, of which Rs 1075- are covered by the mortgage of his landed property while Rs 1932-14-8 are due on Promissory notes. It is only in respect to the items 1 to 4 marked in the schedule, that the four orders of attachment above referred to have been received and a sum of Rs 112-8- has as stated above already been recovered and paid into court.

3. In his written explanation, Ahmad Ali Khan states that these debts were originally contracted by his father and father-in-law at whose request he joined in signing the bonds, that a large portion of the debt was contracted before he entered the Government Service and that after the death of his father and father-in-law, he renewed the bonds at considerably reduced rates of interest. He proposes to liquidate a portion of his debt

Resolution

With reference to Government Order dated 3rd February 1888 N^o. 134. Public, the Board beg to submit for the orders of Government, the case of Ahmad Ali Khan, a clerk on a salary of Rs 45 in their office. From August to December 1888, four orders, attaching a moiety of his pay, have been received from the Madras Court of small causes on account of his debts amounting to Rs 579-1-10. Of this sum, Rs 112-8-0 have been paid off by a monthly deduction of half of his pay and it will still take over twenty one months before the remaining debt is fully discharged.
