Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that your letter of the 9th Sept to the Chief Secretary to Government has been referred to me.

2. - With reference to the stone inscription in the Varadaraja temple, Conjeram. I can send a member of this office to make a copy on Thursday first the 4th instant. Would you therefore be so good as depute some one to accompany him to point out the inscription referred to in your letter, so that no mistake may be made as to the one to be copied.

3. - Provided you know the position of the stone, and no delay is incurred in searching for it, the only probable expenses to which you need be put are the railway allowances of the member of this office deputed for the purpose.
