SIR,

Public Deptt

With reference to G.O. No. 1121 dated 22nd December 1887, I have the honor to enquire whether it is actually necessary that the telegrams therein specified should be despatched by this department to the Government of India. I would point out that the information required to be telegraphed has first to be obtained by myself and the different outpost officers from the Health Officers; each outpost officer then communicates to me by wire the information supplied to him, and I then transmit the same to the Government of India with with the information supplied to me by the Health Officer at Madras in respect to the Port of Madras. It seems to me that there is some unnecessary circumlocution involved in transmitting the information required by the Government of India, and that this could be avoided if the information in question was obtained by the Surgeon General with the Government of Madras and forwarded by him direct to the Government of India.

2. The average yearly cost of sending the telegrams referred to amounts to Rs 265, and I submit that it is for consideration whether this charge can rightly be debited to Port Funds.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your obedient servant,

SIR,

In returning the letter from the Presidency Port Officer Madras referred to me for remarks under your Endorsement No. 3537 Public of the 9th ult., I have the honor to observe that in my opinion the change proposed by the Port Officer will not in any way facilitate business or save expenditure.

2. It may be stated for the information of Government that at each port in this Presidency there is a Port Officer as well as a Port Surgeon. Under the present procedure the Presidency Port Officer gets telegraphic information of the state of health of each port from the different outpost Officers for transmission to the Government of India, and should the work be transferred to me I shall have to obtain that information in a similar similar way from the various Port Surgeons - so that the circumlocution complained of and the cost of telegrams will be strictly the same.

3. With regard to Captain Street's remarks as to whether the cost of telegrams can rightly be debited to Port Funds, I have only to say that it cannot - apparently be debited to a more appropriate head inasmuch as the charge is incurred solely in the interests of the ports in this Presidency.

4. Taking all these matters into account I do not consider it advisable to disturb the present system which has worked well for the last 7 years.

I have the honor to be
Sir

Your most obedient servant

Lucie M. B., L. B. E.
Surgeon General
with the Govt of Madras.
