No. 478-
Enclosures.
Subject.

Sanction is only required in the case of sale to a native, in which case the facts & circumstances of the price settled are to be reported.
When Mr. Singh gets this far he should come again. The price settling in the local market is too vague. If it is intended to cover sale to any native, ~~the~~ the order is too large.

W. S.
Chief.

By L. 12/12/89 No. 251.

The J. are not prepared to pass orders on a general application to dispose of prop. in the local market. There is no objection to Mr. Singh's making enquiries in view of finding a local price for his turn out, viz the amount in this, the price offered, the name & position of the would be purchaser, & such the circumstances as may be the case.

Requesting the permission of Government to dispose of his vehicles & animals, sheep & horses, in the Local market.
