FOR ORDERS.

H.M. has passed the order giving Mr. Carr magt powers, & has altered his office, as therein shown, into "special Assistant in the Dt of Ghazipur".

From this, & from H.M.'s Note - it seems that Mr. Carr should now be gazetted to be an asst. of some sort to the Collector. At present the only order issued is the Rev: Dep't order no. 66 dated 7 Feb 89. It will be observed that the Fin: G.O. 18 Feb 89 no. 105 only refers to what has been done. A G.O. in the Public Dep't seems necessary.

The Asst: Genl: 's Office has been referred to, & they say the former proposed will be unobjectionable, in as Mr. Carr is appd to be "an additional Special Asst." There is one special asst already. Submit that this may be gazetted & the word "additional" added in the Notific: giving magt powers. With ref. to the 2nd clause of sec. 89 of the Crim. P.C., it is proposed retrospective effect.

The Public Dept order won't affect the pay sanctioned to Mr Carr under G.O. 18 Feb 1889. No 105 Finl.

The general question of magl powers will be dealt with immediately.
