READ the following paper

Order.

The following requests are made by Mr. Burns, the acting Superintendent of the Fort. Press, in the foregoing papers:

(1) That his appointment as acting Superintendent may be considered sub-protem during Mr. H. Morris' absence.

(a) from 25th Sept^r 1886 to 30th January 1887, the interval between the date of Mr. Hill's appointment as Superintendent and on the retirement of Mr. Key, and that of the arrival of Mr. Burns, ^{M.P.} taking up the duties of the acting Superintendent; and (b) from 10th October 1888, the date from which ^{Mr. Burns} ~~the latter~~ resigned his appointment;

(2) That he be allowed ^{to draw pay} ~~the maximum~~ rate of salary (Rs 375) as

Sub-protem Deputy Superintendent from 1st of the month of Dec^r 1888, as he had on that date completed one year's acting

Service in that appointment, Mr. Morris having proceeded on leave from 1st Dec^r 1887.

(3.)

Mr. Key retired in 1886, and Mr. Hill was appointed to succeed him and is said by the Acctt. Genl. to have drawn the 700 Rs at once.

The point raised by the Accountant General in para. 2 of C. No 569 is one which should have been submitted for the orders of Government either when Mr. Morgan was appointed Superintendent in 1867, or when Mr. Key was appointed in 1874, or when Mr. Hill was appointed in 1886, but as Mr. Hill now draws the maximum pay, Rs 700, it is submitted that this should now be pointed out that that must be regarded as the figure in which Mr. Burns' allowances should be calculated and that the Accountant General should be instructed to take the orders of Govt. as regards the suppl^y pay when the next vacancy occurs.

It is also submitted that this should now be pointed out to Mr. Burns only allowed to draw a salary of Rs 500 as with draft order submitted ^{has} 23/3

" 416-10-8 for 3rd 4th 5th "

4 years.

4 Mr. Morgan died
in 1874 and Mr. Keys
was appointed his successor. The Accountant General says that he
also drew on appointment as Superintendent
the maximum of Rs 700.

5 Mr. Hill was next brought out in 1874 as Deputy on the same terms
as Mr. Keys, on a 5 years engagement. He was re-engaged for a further term of 5 years from 19th Oct 77
and his pay was raised from Rs 416 ²/₃ to Rs 500 p-m.
