GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From J. C. HANNYNGTON, Esq., Resident in Travancore and Cochin, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Cochin, 14th February 1889, No. C-1.

With reference to notification of the Government of India, No. 339, published at page 52, part I, Gazette of India, January 26th, 1889, I have the honor to request I may be furnished with the necessary books under section 18, Act VI of 1886.

2. In reference to section 16, Act VI of 1886, the Resident does not attend any separate office, but conducts his work in his private residence. The only office, so to speak, is at Trevandrum, and as the Resident is continually on the move, it may be best perhaps to notify that notices of births and deaths should be presented to the Resident wherever he may be at the time.

3. In Travancore Mr. Prince is also appointed Registrar, inasmuch as he is Marriage Registrar. I presume we perform our duties independent of each other.

ORDER—dated 15th April 1889, No. 344, Public.

With reference to section 16 of Act VI of 1886, the Residency will be considered to be Mr. Hannyngton's office in his capacity as Registrar of Births and Deaths.

2. As surmised by the Resident, Mr. Prince is a co-ordinate and independent Registrar.

3. The Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages will arrange to supply both Mr. Hannyngton and Mr. Prince with the necessary books and forms if he has not already done so.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following paper

From the Resident, Mr.
and Jochin. dated 4th
Feb. 1889. 4. 61.

Order.

^{of the foregoing letter} Part 1, will be committed to the Reg. of
of the Res. Section and Marriages for compliance.
With reference to part 2, the Resident is informed that during his absence from the Residence and to meet the convenience of the Parties it may be refined that notices under Sec. 49 of the Act will be received by post provisionally and subject to the parties
appearing in person
after the Resident's

It is desired that notices of births & deaths must, under Sec. 22 of the Act, be signed in the presence of the Registrar by the persons giving notice thereof.
Those persons who decline to appear before the Resident in compliance of course do so, but those who find this inconvenient may be allowed to send in a provisional notice by post. The Resident will then on his return to the residence arrange for the appearance of such persons before him there is also another return to head quarters to sign the entry in the register. One return of his return should be publicly given.

It will be observed from Sec 22 (2) that until an entry is signed, the return on death will not be deemed to be registered.

The question in para 3 of the Residents letter is answered in the affirmative.

alternative, in appearance & register before Mr Prince who is appointed by the Resident, is a co-ordinate & independent Registrar Registration under the act being purely voluntary it is open to persons wishing to comply with the provisions secs 20-22 to do so before any Registrar having jurisdiction

Resd. 2 and 7.
Regd. 1. 1880 & 1881.
7/3.

Public G.O. 346
15/4/89.

Mr Prince is fully empowered and can register independently of the Resident.
The Residency must be held to be the Resident's Office for the purpose of the Act.
The Reg. Sec. stated I supplied Mr Prince with books.

Secd
10/4/89

I don't find anything in the Act about this provision notice, and doubt the propriety of the course here indicated.
If the Resident on receiving a notice is wonder to make an entry as prescribed he will have to carry the books about with him which is objectionable.
Mr Prince is appointed a Registrar only for certain classes. What are they?

Secd
29/4/89

Note for H.M.
Mr Prince (G.O. 1 July 87: 56) was simply appointed a Marriage Registrar in Travancore under act XV of 1872. Apparently he can register for all return subjects of Her Majesty in that State (Sec. 1 Act XV of 1872).
