RULES

OF THE

Friend-in-Need Society.

I. The Society is denominated the FRIEND-IN-NEED SOCIETY and all Subscribers to its funds are Members.

II. The business of the Society is conducted by a General Committee elected at the Annual General Meeting of the Subscribers; the Committee having the power to nominate their President and to select their Treasurer and Secretary, and to supply any accidental vacancies in their number during the intervals of the General Meetings which are to be held annually.

N.B.—The General Committee will be sub-divided into Local Committees according to the districts in which they reside.

III. The Local Committees shall meet monthly in their several districts. The General Committee shall meet as often as shall be found necessary, but especially in the months of January and July; five to form a quorum. A special Meeting may at any time be called on a requisition addressed to the President and signed by three Members of the Committee.

IV. The objects of the Society are the relief of the deserving poor and the suppression of mendicity; and the means employed for the attainment of these objects are:—(1) the provision of an Asylum, called the FRIEND-IN-NEED SOCIETY'S HOME (established 1881), for the aged, infirm, and destitute, in which they are lodged, clothed, supplied with the material necessities for health and comfort, and receive a small daily allowance for food; (2) the allotment of pensions to aged and infirm persons in whose cases exceptional circumstances exist rendering them fitter subjects for out-door than for in-door relief; (3) the establishment of a labour-yard to which members of the Society can refer all male beggars whose profession of willingness to work they desire to test; (4) the personal investigation of all the cases referred to the Society for relief; (5) the detection and exposure of imposture.

V. The Town of Madras, with its suburbs, is divided into seven districts, each of which will be under the management of its own Local Committee; so that every case is inspected on the spot, with all the advantages of local knowledge and inquiry. The Local Committees will be guided in all their operations by the orders of the General Committee and the standing Rules here laid down.

VI. The immediate subjects of the charity of the Society are resident European and East Indian Christians of every denomination, and of both sexes; who, from old age, natural infirmity, or the ordinary misfortunes of life, are reduced to distress or necessity.

Natives having the privilege of admission to the Monegar Choultry do not come within the plan of this Society.

VII. Persons not usually resident in Madras, but coming from a distant station for the purpose of obtaining eleemosynary aid, are not admissible to the benefits of the Society.

VIII. Persons found guilty of wilful deception, or who shall refuse to work, or to allow their children to work, or who, receiving support from the Society, shall be found begging, or leading a disorderly or sinful life, shall be considered to have forfeited their claim to aid from the Society.

IX. The children of all persons receiving aid from the Society shall be obliged to attend the Free Schools of the district in which they reside.

X. Members are requested to refer all cases for investigation to the Paymaster of the Local Committee of the district in which the applicant resides. All applications for relief investigated by each Local Committee during the month, are to be forwarded to the Secretary to be submitted at the next Meeting of the Committee.

XI. In cases of extreme emergency, the Paymasters shall be at liberty to afford immediate temporary relief; but all such instances shall be reported to their respective Local Committees at their next meeting.

XII. The rate of allowance to all dependents of the Society shall be fixed by the Committee with reference to a reasonable subsistence only, and no more.

XIII. The Committee shall have the power of engaging such servants as may be found necessary, and of paying them such reasonable salaries as they may consider right.

XIV. The average half-yearly income shall be declared by the Treasurers half-yearly in the months of January and July, and the monthly expenditure for the ensuing half-year shall thereupon be limited by the Committee. It shall, however, be lawful for the General Committee, at a Meeting specially summoned for that purpose, to alter this limit during the half-year, should circumstances render it desirable, provided that previous notice of such Meeting shall have been circulated to all Members of the Committee.

XV. A General Meeting of Subscribers shall be held annually, at which shall be rendered a report of the proceedings of the Committee, and of the state of the funds; previous to which the Society's accounts shall be duly audited.

XVI. All propositions brought forward, whether at the General Annual Meeting, or at the Proceedings of the Committee, shall be decided by a majority of votes, the Chairman or President having only one vote and that a casting vote.

XVII. That the Pension List be revised half-yearly.

Rules for the Guidance of Local Committees.

I. Each Local Committee shall meet once a month for the payment of Pensioners and for the consideration of applications for relief—the Paymasters to be the convenors.

II. With a view to the prevention of fraud, the Local Committees shall meet on the same day, and at the same hour in each month, for the payment of Pensioners.

III. All applications for relief shall be personally investigated and reported upon by a Member of the Local Committee, and shall be forwarded by the Paymaster to the General Committee with the report and the specific recommendations of the Local Committee.

IV. The disbursements of the Local Committees are not to exceed the gross amount allotted to them by the General Committee.

Casual relief may be given to an individual for one month only. If it is considered necessary to give the same person relief for a longer period, the case should be referred to the General Committee; and in sending in papers a month's allowance may be disbursed in advance as temporary relief.

V. An investigation into the circumstances of the paupers shall be made by the Local Committees at certain intervals, as they shall deem expedient, with a view to their identification, to the exposure of any imposition, and still further of ascertaining whether by the improved condition of any of their immediate relatives, the Society may not be relieved of the expense of their support.

With this view every case should be reported upon at least once a year.

VI. Each Local Committee will record its monthly proceedings, and also keep a Register of its Pensioners, in the books supplied for these purposes.

VII. On the death of a Society's Pensioner, the Paymasters are authorized to expend Rs. 2 for the cost* of the grave and bearers.

VIII. The Paymasters of the Local Committees will be furnished with blank Returns, one of which will be filled up monthly and forwarded to the Secretary for the information of the General Committee.

IX. Local Committees are particularly requested to be most careful in making payments to absentees; no such payments should be made without some Member of the Committee being able to vouch that no fraud is being practised.

X. Applications for admission to the Women's Workshops shall be countersigned by the Paymaster of the District in which the applicant resides.

* NOTE.—Messrs. J. Fenn & Co. kindly undertake to bury the Pensioners of the Society free of any other charges.

If approved, the Superintendent will enter it under the woman's name and number in the weekly work book, but if not properly done, she will give it back to be done again. If the woman refuses to do this, the Superintendent will give it to another to rectify, who will receive the full price for the work.

8.—If any difficulty shall arise concerning the price of work, the Superintendent shall refer to one of the Ladies of the Sub-Committee, who will take means to ascertain what would be a fair remunerating price for the piece of work.

9.—When work is sent to the Shop, the Superintendent shall examine it at once, and see that all the articles are correct as specified in the note accompanying it, and give a receipt accordingly, mentioning if any thing be deficient; the Superintendent shall then enter the work with the direction in the book kept for that purpose.

10.—The weekly account of work shall be closed on Thursday evening, ready for payment on Friday.

11.—A Nursery is set apart for the young children, where they are looked after by one of the women, and they are on no account to be allowed into the work-room.

GENERAL REPORT.

In submitting the Annual Report of this Society, the Committee has much pleasure in observing a slight increase in the receipts for 1888 over those for 1887. Although exceptional efforts to reduce expenditure have been made, the disbursements have exceeded the total receipts by Rs. 101, and the Committee while heartily thanking those who have subscribed, would draw the attention of the large numbers of non-subscribers to the merits of the charity; and the still greater amount of good it could do if its funds were more elastic. If non-subscribers would all give even the small sum of Re. 1 per month, the effect upon the funds of the Society would be very considerable. The Committee appeal to the charitable public to strengthen their hands in this matter, reminding them that under the operations of the Government Grant every ten rupees given by them becomes fifteen rupees before it reaches the poor.

The year closed with a cash balance of Rs. 1,140.

Church Collections.—The Committee regret that there is a considerable falling off in the receipts under this head, and, while heartily thankful for the collections made, would urge upon the clergy the great claims of the Society on their support. In 1877 the amount received from Church Collections was Rs. 2,783-2-4; eleven years later, in 1888, we find it has fallen to Rs. 667 or considerably less than a quarter. With the exception of 1878 and of 1883 when the receipts from Church Collections amounted to over Rs. 1,400, the amounts have never risen above Rs. 1,100, but they have never fallen so low as they did in 1888. They now amount to less than half the sum of Rs. 1,380 received by the Parishes from the Friend-in-Need Society under the head of "Government Grant on Parish almsgiving." The Committee beg most earnestly to call the attention of the clergy of all denominations to this fact, and to press on them the claims of the Society.

Subscriptions and Donations.—The total amount received in Subscriptions and donations was Rs 12,627, of which Rs. 1,220, was subscribed for special purposes. The District collections were Rs. 6,309 as against Rs. 6,257 in 1887. This is a slight increase, but not up to the figures of previous years, and the Committee would call upon all its members and well-wishers to make its work and its needs more widely known so that it may be impossible for any to plead ignorance as a reason for not subscribing. It is on its monthly subscriptions that the Society chiefly relies for its regular income.

Government Grant.—The Government Grant drawn during 1888 was 11,236, against Rs. 10,642 in 1887.

Audit.—The accounts of the Society have been again audited by Mr. J. J. Franklin whose report will be found on another page. The best thanks of the Society are due to Mr. Franklin, Mr. Traill Straith, Mr. W. T. Highton, and Mr. J. D'Santos, for auditing the various accounts connected with the work of the Society.

Relief Operations.

Out-relief.—At the beginning of the year there were 247 pensioners on the rolls, of these 42 were struck off for various reasons, and 13 died. During the year 34 pensioners were added, thus leaving 226 on the rolls at the end of the year. The total amount spent in pensions was Rs. 9,491. The local Committees have recently done their best to reduce the number of out-door pensioners, and every care will be taken that they are only given in cases where real hardship would be inflicted on the old or crippled by receiving them as inmates of the Home. These cases occur chiefly where the recipients have friends who will house and look after them, but who cannot afford the whole cost of their maintenance.

In-relief. There were 137 persons in the Home on the last day of 1888, of whom 103 were adults—viz., 38 males and 65 females, and 34 children, 23 boys and 11 girls; 244 persons passed through the Home during the year. The highest number in the Home on any one day was 174 and the lowest 136; The daily average was 151 against 122 in 1887.

The Home.

The Committee regret to see that there is still a strong feeling on the part of many destitute poor against entering the Home, for this shows that the Society is not yet fully understood by the classes for whose benefit it is intended. It is only natural that men and women who spend their whole time in cadging from door to door in defiance of the Police, and who live on scraps and spend their money in drink, should object to live in a home where they are obliged to, at least, make some appearance of decency and cleanliness, and are not able to roam about the streets between 10 A.M., and 4 P.M. A Sub-committee has, however, been appointed to enquire into the reasons why certain of the respectable poor objected to enter the Home, and their report will be considered in due course.

During the year 1 inmate died in the Home from debility, and 7 who were sent from the Home to the Hospital, died from various causes. With these exceptions, and considering the class from which the inmates are drawn, the Home has been remarkably free from disease. The school has greatly dwindled of late, as all the Roman Catholic children above four years of age, and all the Church of England girls, have been boarded out under conditions that will be referred to later on. The staff of the Home has remained unchanged during the year, and the Committee record with pleasure its satisfaction with the manner in which the Master and Matron, Mr. and Mrs. McGavin, and the School-master Mr. Clarke, have performed their duties.

The thanks of the Committee are due to those ladies and gentlemen who have sent cast off clothing for the inmates, and who subscribed to the Christmas Treat. For the latter object Rs. 776 was raised, which sufficed to pay for the treat and for the annual present of clothing.

With regard to presents of old clothing, about which some mistaken ideas appear to have become current, the Committee are in a position to assert that all such clothing is entered in a book on receipt, and distributed to the inmates under the immediate orders of the Honorary Secretary. Receipts can be given if desired, provided that a list accompanies the gift.

Women's Workshops.

Four regular Workshops are still affiliated to the Society, and the reports from their Committees, which are embodied in this report, show how important is their work, and how earnestly and thoroughly it is done. The Committee desires to express its hearty thanks to the ladies who conduct the several Workshops for the aid they have given the Society in enabling a number of the very poor to obtain a living without loss of self-respect. The Parent Society continues to assist willing workers who are unable to make as much as Rs. 4 per mensem by bringing up their earnings to that amount.

Women's Workshop, Mount Road.—This received only the Government Grant, the Rs. 20 shown as rent, being on account of December 1837. Supplementary relief to the amount of Rs. 344-10-1 was given through this Workshop.

Women's Workshop, Egmore.—Received only the Government Grant and Rs. 306-15-8 supplementary relief.

Women's Workshop, St. Thomé.—Received Rs. 15 a month rent, the Government Grant and Rs. 85-3-11 supplementary relief.

Women's Workshop, North Black Town.—Received the Government Grant only.

The Supplementary Workshop.—Received an allowance of Rs. 210 during the year.

Advertisements.

The Committee have again to record its grateful thanks to the Proprietors of the local newspapers for the gratuitous insertion of the Society's advertisement.

General.

The most important change during the past year has been the boarding out of the children.

The Committee felt strongly that if the Society owed the Public one duty more than another, it was to provide as far as possible for the children of the destitute poor. If the terribly large number of mendicants now existing in Madras is ever to be reduced, it must be by striking at the root of the evil and training the children so that they may be able to earn their own living and not look forward to begging as a means of subsistence. Though little can be done for those adults whose natures have become permanently warped, and who would beg if they received twice the present allowance, and regard personal cleanliness too often as a secondary consideration, yet the children, while their natures are still pliable, might be trained to better things.

To effect this they must be removed from the home, and from the influence of their relatives who would bring them up in idleness like themselves. The great difficulty in the home lay in the impossibility of providing for the care of the children during the hours they were not in school, and in the fact that the education there given, though sufficient for very young children, did not fully meet the requirements of those who were growing up.

To meet this difficulty, the Roman Catholic Clergy offered to provide for the children of that denomination at whatever rate the Society deemed reasonable. The Committee fixed Rs. 4 a month as the amount that could be paid for each child, and at this rate eight girls were received into St. Mary's Orphanage, Black Town, and nine boys into St. Patrick's Orphanage at Adyar. The children of the Church of England have been partially provided for in Mrs. Firth's home at the same rate, with some slight aid from the parochial funds, and all girls of that denomination and boys under 10 years of age, a total of sixteen, are thus provided for. These arrangements throw considerable extra expense on the society, but the work done is, in the opinion of the Committee, of such very great practical utility that it would be a real misfortune if the numbers had to be reduced, and they confidently call on the public of Madras for further aid towards this most practical charity.

If these children were allowed to grow up with their parents in the home, they would probably come on the Society when they were adults, whereas under this new arrangement, nearly all of them will lead healthy industrious lives and be fitted for a future of industry. The advantage of such provision to young girls of from 14 to 19 years of age cannot be over-estimated. The only children now unprovided for are the Protestant boys of above 10 years of age, and the Protestant children who do not belong to the Church of England. The Committee suggest that the Anglo-Eurasian Association might find work for the former, while the latter could be received by Mrs. Firth, provided a proportional share of the guarantee were paid by their parishes. This would, probably, not amount to more than Rs. 7 per mensem from each Church.

The Committee would also draw the attention of members to the mendicity tickets, of the existence of which many appear to be unaware, and which are, unfortunately, very little used. These tickets can be obtained by members from the home in the form of small books, and contain a counterfoil which can be sent by post to the Secretary to check the issue of the tickets themselves. These tickets are an excellent check on professional beggars, and form a means of test which is otherwise out of reach.

The Committee would also entreat the public of Madras generally to refrain from that indiscriminate charity which pauperizes rather than relieves, and makes the efforts of the Society towards the suppression of mendicity almost valueless. More than half the applications for relief are from professional beggars, while the genuine cases of distress can be far better treated by the Society than by private individuals. As 50 per cent. is added by Government to all the money received from the public, contributions to the Society can effect more good than when distributed in any other way. The amount of money that is wasted in Madras on professional beggars with long stories is something very large, and numbers of these tramps regularly work the Presidency on tour, being sent up to Bangalore or Secunderabad by some charitable person when the weather begins to get warm in Madras, subsisting by begging at these places during the hot weather, and returning to Madras (at some one else's expense) when the season sets in, to pursue the same profession here, sometimes varying the monotony by a turn through Trichinopoly or Pondicherry, and a sea voyage. This Society is in correspondence with the Friend-in-Need Society at Bangalore to prevent this practice as far as possible.

The best thanks of the Society are due to Major-Genl. H. McLeod, R. A., Honorary Secretary, for his very efficient conduct of the affairs of the Society, to Major Fletcher, R. A. and Capt. Townsend, R. A., who have acted for him on several occasions; also to those Honorary Officials who, by undertaking the duties of Paymaster have enabled the work of the various districts to be efficiently carried out in such a way as to merit the full confidence of the subscribers.

Before closing their Report the Committee desire to place upon record their sense of the loss which the Society has sustained in the resignation of the Presidentship by Mr. H. S. Thomas, c.s. &c., &c.—late senior member of the Board of Revenue.

Mr. Thomas filled the office of President of the Society since 1885—and always evinced a practical and sympathetic interest in its welfare and work.

The Hon'ble Mr. Justice F. H. Wilkinson, Judge of the High Court—very kindly consented in October last to accept the office vacated by Mr. Thomas.

In conclusion the Committee would call the attention of the general public to the amount of want and misery still existing among the destitute Europeans and Eurasians in Madras, and beg them to do all in their power to aid the Society.

C. MICHIE SMITH, Esq.—President.

The Committee is glad to be able to report that the year 1888 has, on the whole, been a successful one for the Mount Road Workshop. The actual receipts for the year have not quite covered the expenditure, but last year's credit balance was a large one, viz. Rs. 1,481-10-8, and after including this, the Shop's credit balance this year amounts to Rs. 954-13-10.

The sale of work realised Rs. 13,973-0-7, over Rs. 2,000 more than last year, showing that the Shop has still a large number of kind supporters.

The number of women employed has been greater than in any previous year, the average being 75, and during June and July the full number, 80, were on the roll.—They earned Rs. 2,603-7-2 as against Rs. 2,322-13-5 in 1887.—It is still a great difficulty to keep the women fully employed. In order to do this the Committee took a contract this year from a sister charity, the Civil Orphan Asylum, with little or no profit, and will have to do so again next year. Coarse work is especially needed, and the public is earnestly entreated to send what they can in this line to the shop. Another difficulty the Committee has to contend with is to keep the Workshop premises in repair. The Sowcar, to whom the property is mortgaged, by the landlady refuses to allow anything to be stopped out of the rent for repairs. The Committee will either have to sanction a larger sum than perhaps the Shop can well afford for these, or else look out for another house.

The Christmas subscriptions amounted to Rs. 449 and clothing to the value of Rs. 155-12-9 was as usual distributed amongst the women and children at Christmas, (Mrs. Master kindly presiding) while Rs. 90 in cash were given to them for Christmas dinners. The dole of coffee and hoppers during the wet weather was continued.

Out of the annual subscriptions the Committee pays a portion of a teacher's salary at Christ Church School, sending the children of the workwomen there to be taught, feeds the children once a day and the mothers on wet mornings, assists the workers when ill, pays the dhobie, and grants small donations towards the wedding and funeral expenses of the workers.

There have been great changes in the personnel during the year. Mrs. Simpson, after five years arduous and faithful service as Superintendent, retired and was succeeded by Miss. Walter, and eventually by Mrs. Moses, the present Superintendent. Mrs. Johnstone, the Assistant Superintendent, also retired and Mrs. Harrington has taken her place. In the Committee too, there have been many changes the Treasurer, Stock-keeper, and Secretary all being new, and two vacancies, which occurred in December, have still to be filled up. In spite of all these changes, however, we hope that the Workshop will continue to flourish and to be supported by the public as hitherto.

GRACE WILKINSON,

Secretary, Friend-in-Need Society's

Women's Workshop, Mount Road.

C. MICHIE SMITH, Esq., President.

The Committee of this Workshop records with pleasure that the past year has been a successful one.

The Egmore Women's Workshop closes its books for 1888 with a balance to its credit of Rs. 191-1-7. Although the balance at the end of the year is not so large as that of 1887, the work of the shop has been much extended. The number of women on the roll throughout the year was 68, and the earnings for the year up to December 31, 1888 were Rs. 2,289-9-0 as against Rs. 2,058-2-10 in 1887.

The subscriptions have increased from Rs. 465 for 1887, to Rs. 599 for 1888—a circumstance which the committee note with satisfaction. The workshop has paid its own house-rent throughout the year.

Gifts of clothing were distributed to the women at mid-summer, for which no special subscriptions were collected. The sum of Rs. 233 collected for Xmas gifts, was spent in presents of clothing and money to each woman. The meal of coffee and bread was continued daily to the women throughout the year.

The salary of the dhoby and school fees for five children were paid out of the charity fund. Gratuities were also given in cases of sickness and death among the women, and to relatives dependent on them.

The General Committee F. N. S. make up the income of each woman, who is unable to earn 4 Rs. during the month, to that amount.

In the Industrial branch the outlay for materials was Rs. 7,270-14-7 and the sale of work was Rs. 10,555-8-6, showing an increase of Rs. 1,724-5-7 for the year.

The clothing for the police is still taken for the sake of the coarse workers, although worked at a loss, which loss is borne by the charity fund.

The Committee thank the Postmaster General, Messrs. Parry and Co., and the Public of Madras and elsewhere for their support in various ways, and they earnestly ask for more work, as well as subscriptions to an institution, which encourages to self-help these poor women many of whom have husbands and children dependent on them.

The Committee desires to thank Mr. Traill-Straith most cordially, for having kindly audited the accounts of the workshop for the past year.

I. F. DBAKE-BROCKMAN,

*Honorary Secretary, Friend-in-Need Society,

MISS MORPHETT,
Hony. Secy. & Treasr.

The Committee have the pleasure to submit to subscribers the report of the St. Thomè branch workshop for 1888 and are glad to be able to say that the institution has done well during the year, though it sustained a very great loss in the death of its excellent and valuable Superintendent Mrs. Hayes for whom the Committee had a high regard and in whom they placed great confidence as having rendered good and faithful service to the institution for 29 years. Mrs. Fox who was recommended by the late Mrs. Hayes to act for her during her illness has been confirmed as Superintendent.

During the past year the workshop has given employment to from 20 to 22 poor women. Two of them have left to be married and one has gone into service. One of the two old women who received a pension from the Society died in November and two new workers have been admitted. The funds of the workshop have been greatly helped by a bequest of Rs. 150 kindly left to it by the late Mrs. Hayes, who also was so kind as to leave Rs. 2 to each of the poor women, and an acceptable gift of a clock and some articles of furniture has been made to the workroom by Mr. Hayes as a remembrance of Mrs. Hayes. Half of the offertory from S. Thomè church on Christmas day was also kindly given to the workshop.

The Superintendent, women and servants received the usual gifts of clothing and money at Christmas and the Committee are glad to be able to show by the accounts herewith submitted and which Mr. Franklin has been so kind as to audit a better balance at the close than at the beginning of the year. Mr. Franklin's letter is herewith published and the Committee return their grateful thanks to him and to all who have given them kind help by subscribing and sending work to the institution during the past year.

MAY MORPHETT,
Honorary Secretary and Treasurer.

VEPERY, 21st January, 1889.

To

MISS M. MORPHETT,
*Honorary Secretary and Treasurer,
St. Thomè Branch, Women's Workshop.*

MADAM,

As requested by you, I have examined the accounts of the St. Thomè Branch, Women's Workshop for the year ending 31st December, 1888, and enclose a statement signed by me containing a faithful summary of the transactions of the Workshop, during the year under audit.

The clear way in which the different books and accounts are kept has rendered the audit more a pleasure than a task and the clerk with his perfect knowledge of the Accounts of the Workshop, has rendered me very willing assistance during the audit.

I remain,
Yours faithfully,
J. FRANKLIN,
Auditor.

REPORT OF THE NORTH BLACK TOWN WOMEN'S WORKSHOP.

Established 1st August, 1884.

It is with much pleasure the Committee submits for the information of the subscribers and the public the report of the above institution for the year 1887-88.

At the suggestion of the Honorary Secretary Friend-in-Need Society, that the reports from all the Workshops may be for one and the same period, this report includes the working of the institutions up to 31st December, 1888, a period of 17 months.

The number of workers on the rolls of the Workshop is 14, the same as in the previous year.

The amount realized on account of work turned out by the workers is Rs. 395-10-0, there was a laxity of work for a space of 3 months due to the absence of the Superintendent from ill-health.

The Workshop received through the Friend-in-Need Society a Government grant of Rs. 43-4-0 being 50% on subscriptions and donations collected during the year 1886-87.

The amount of subscriptions and donations secured from 1st August 1887 to 31st December 1888 is Rs. 257-14-0, out of this sum Rs. 23-8-0 were subscribed on account of clothing for the workers.

A statement of receipts and disbursements for the 17 months under report is appended duly audited by Mr. Jno. D'Santos to whom the thanks of the Committee are due.

A change has been effected in the establishment of the Workshop, Mrs. A. Pereira resigned her appointment about the end of the year owing to indifferent health.

Mrs. J. Martin is the present Superintendent. The thanks of the Committee are due to the late Superintendent for the interest she took in her work during her connection with the Workshop.

The Committee thanks the subscribers and donors and the public for the help rendered by them; and begs for a continuance of their patronage.

The Rev. T. B. D'Quadros having secured the Principalship of the Saint Thomè College his connection with this institution ceased. The Committee cannot close this report without recording its sense of gratitude for the good he has done in establishing a Workshop for the poor of the district, and for the care and attention he manifested in the interest of the Workshop.

He marked his departure from the district by presenting Rs. 50 to the Workshop.
