Government Glossary Progress
Report for March 1889.

The topographical matter has begun to come back from collectors, and the establishment are occupied with incorporating the collectors' corrections.

2. The present opportunity has been taken to have the names of the Trigonometrical stations of the Presidency (Bd. Pro. 28th July 1886, no 1706, herewith) critically spelt.
They are in many cases

distorted and unrecognizable being mostly hill points whose names have been given by hill-tribes.

Also to localize them by naming the nearest village not being a mere hamlet.

3. The establishment has recently been reduced by another Rs. 100, the present expenditure being Rs. 382 per mensem against Rs 577 full scale.
