ORDER—dated 2nd May 1889, No. 391, Public.

The Government is pleased to issue the following rules for the gratuitous supply of medicines to Government servants in civil employ and their families:—

Revised Rules for the gratuitous issue of medicines to Government Servants in Civil employ.

Servants of Government in civil employ at all stations, except Madras and Ootacamund, where there is a Government civil hospital, will be entitled to the gratuitous supply of such authorized medicines as are in store therein, but such supplies will only be given on the prescription of a Government Medical officer on duty at the station.

2. In places in which no Government civil hospital exists, prescriptions should be sent to a druggist's shop, or to a Municipal or Local Fund dispensary, and the patient will be liable to pay for the supplies.

3. In Ootacamund, all non-gazetted officers drawing less than Rs. 60 a month will be entitled to the gratuitous supply of authorized medicines in store at the Jail or Police hospital, on the prescription of a Government Medical officer on duty at the station.

4. In Madras, all non-gazetted servants of Government drawing less than Rs. 60 per mensem will be entitled to the gratuitous supply of medicines for themselves when they apply at any Government hospital for medical treatment and are actually brought on the records as out-patients.

5. In cases where families of Government officers are entitled to gratuitous medical treatment, they are also entitled to the supply of Government medicines gratis under the same conditions as the officers themselves.

2. The rules, which supersede all previous orders on the subject, will be communicated to all heads of departments, and will be published in the Fort St. George and all District Gazettes for general information.
