at that time, and under an aged mother who is still alive, took employment in the service of Messrs. Franch and Co. and served them for a long time, but is thrown out of employment, as the above firm is closing their business. Petitioner is anxious to go into Government employ, has passed the General Test Examination in 1874, and is in sound health; but is debarred from entering Government service, according to the 25 years' order, in force at present, petitioner being above that age. He humbly begs that your Lordship will take into consideration the services of his father and brother, and exempt him from that 25 years' order - for which act of kindness and charity, petitioner as in duty bound will always pray.

I beg remain
Your most obedient and humble servant.
