Regulations for the Corps of Guides

11. When Guides from physical infirmity are deemed no longer fit for the Service, on the same being certified by a Medical officer, application will be made by the Quarter Master General to the Adjutant General's Department; for a Medical Invaliding Committee: but no individual is eligible to be transferred to the Pension Establishment, unless he has been wounded in the Service, has lost his health in actual foreign Service, has been disabled by accident in the execution of his duty or has served 20 years. The rate of pension depends on the circumstances under which the pension is solicited, but in ordinary cases half pay is the rate fixed. Vide
