Office note.

The Supt. Govt. Press submits for favorable consideration, an application from C. Pragasam, a Piece-Work Compositor, for reinstatement to his post from which he was suspended from 18 February 1889, for having applied for the benefits of the Insolvent Act. The court discharged him free of all debts.

2. The debts seem to have been contracted solely by his late brother who died in the late Park fire, and to whom he accommodated with his signature, and to family troubles over which he had no control. His liabilities amount to
