1. That he the party of the first part will as soon as ^{he} may be directed by the Secretary of State for India in Council proceed to Madras for which purpose he will be provided with a first class passage but not hotel accommodation or any other expenses incurred in the course of his transit.
2. That he will on arrival at Madras forthwith report himself to the Government there and will submit himself to the orders of the Government and of the officers and authority under whom he shall be placed.
3. That he will employ himself honestly efficiently and diligently under the orders and instructions of the Officers under whom he shall from time to time be placed as Deputy Superintendent and Compositor of the Government Press at Madras in which capacity he will discharge all duties appertaining to that office and also all such duties as are discharged by persons holding similar situations in India and do all things which may be required of him or which are necessary to be done in his capacity as aforesaid and will make himself in other respects generally useful as may be required of him and that he will whenever required proceed to any other part of India and there perform such or the like duties and that he will do his best to instruct in the mysteries of his art the Natives and others who may be placed under him or may be working with him.
4. That he will not on any pretence absent himself from his duties without having first obtained the permission of Government or its authorized Officers or in case of sickness or inevitable accident without forwarding a medical certificate satisfactory to the Officers aforesaid.
5. That he will devote his whole time to the duties of the service and will not on his own account or otherwise either directly or indirectly carry on or be concerned in any trade or business whatsoever.
6. That he will when required take upon himself the responsible charge of Government money and stores and will truly and faithfully account for and pay over or deliver to the proper person all money goods and stores which shall at any time come to his hands or be under his charge on account of Government.
7. That he will conform to all the Rules and Regulations of the Department of the Government Service to which he may belong and will obey all such orders and directions as he shall from time to time receive from any authorized Officer of the Government.
8. That the said Government may at any time dispense with the services of the party of the first part on giving him six months previous notice and may at any time discharge him from their service without notice in the event of misconduct on his part or of a breach by him of any of the conditions herein specified.

9. That the party of the first part will not relinquish the service of Government unless he shall have given the said Government six months previous notice in writing of his intention to do so and that if he shall relinquish the said service within a period of five years from the date of his reporting his arrival at Madras as aforesaid after having given six months notice as aforesaid he will forthwith on demand pay to the Secretary of State for India in Council the sum of Fifty pounds (being the cost of his passage to Madras).

10. That if the party of the first part shall observe and comply with all the conditions of these presents there shall be paid to him for such a time as he shall be actually in the service and perform his duties a salary at and after the rates following viz: - 333. 5. 4 per mensem for the first year Rs 375 per mensem for the second year and 16. 10. 8 per mensem thereafter. No such alteration or increase in the rate of salary shall be made at the end of the first or any other year unless and until the Officer under whom he may be placed shall certify that he has performed his duties to the satisfaction of such Officer.

11. That the salary from time to time payable to the party of the first part shall be payable monthly in India commencing from the date of his reporting his arrival at Madras as aforesaid and ceasing on the day of his quitting the service or on the day of his discharge therefrom or on the day of his death if he shall die whilst therein.

12. That if at the expiration of five years from the date of his reporting his arrival at Madras as aforesaid the party of the first part shall at all times have performed his duties to the satisfaction of the Government or if within that period he shall be compelled by ill health not brought on by his own neglect or carelessness or misconduct (of which the Certificate of the proper Medical Officer of Government shall be conclusive) to quit such service and shall actually quit the same in India and up to that time shall have performed his duties to the satisfaction of Government he shall be provided with a free first class passage to England provided that he claims such passage within three months from the determination of his service and leaves India within that time and otherwise as Government may direct.

13. That in case the Government shall retain the party of the first part in the service after the expiration of five years from the date of his reporting his arrival at Madras as aforesaid the period served by him under these Presents (commencing only from the date of his joining) his first appointment in India shall count as service towards leave and pension under the Uncovenanted Service Leave and Pension Rules if under such Rules leave or pension shall have been earned before the termination of his service under any of the provisions of these presents. Provided always that the Government shall have the right of modifying the said Rules from time to time at its sole discretion and the party of the first part shall have no claim (except subject to such modification) to the benefits of either code of Rules as it stands at the day of the date hereof and in case of dispute as to the interpretation of any of such Rules or otherwise howsoever the decision of the Secretary of State for India in Council shall be conclusive.

14. That if the party of the first part shall be guilty of any insubordination intemperance or other misconduct or of the breach of any of the provisions herein contained whereby he shall be subject to dismissal he will pay to Government a sum equal to one year's salary in respect thereof and that if he shall absent himself from the said service without first obtaining permission as aforesaid or in case of sickness without forwarding a proper Medical Certificate to the Officer under whom he shall for the time being be placed he shall pay Rupees ten per diem for every day he shall be so absent and that if he shall at any time quit the service without the permission of the Government he will pay Rupees ten per diem for every day between the day when he shall so quit the service and the day when his said service would have expired and that all these said several sums shall become due and be paid by the party of the first part as and by way of liquidated damages and shall upon demand be paid by him to such person as may be directed by Government to demand the same. Provided nevertheless that it shall be lawful for the Government to deduct the same out of any money which may be payable to the party of the first part on any account whatever.

15. That in any payments made in Great Britain under these presents notwithstanding any rule to the contrary the rate of exchange between England and India annually fixed by the Secretary of State for India in Council in communication with the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury shall be observed.

16. That the proceedings letters and reports of the Governor General of India in Council or of any of the local governments and of all other the Officers and Agents of Government in any copies thereof or extracts therefrom which shall be sent to the Secretary of State for India in Council or to any Officers or servants in the Indian Service of Her Majesty in England or elsewhere in any way relating to the sums of money to be paid or allowed to the party of the first part for his conduct or in any way relating to the premises shall be received as conclusive evidence of any matter therein contained in any action or in any legal proceedings by or between the parties to these presents or in any way relating thereto.

In witness whereof the party of the first part and Secretaries General Richard Stacey Esq and Colonel Sir Owen Tudor Byrne Esq - 688 being two Members of the Council of India have hereunto set their hands the day and year first above written.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Despatch from the Right Honorable Lord CROSS, Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, Fort St. George, dated India Office, London, 13th April 1889, No. 6 (Public).

With reference to your despatch, No. 4, dated the 22nd of January last, I have to inform your Excellency in Council that I have appointed Mr. Thomas Fisher to be Deputy Superintendent of the Government Press at Madras, and I transmit the agreement signed by him.

From Secretary of State to—
Government of Madras, 20th March 1889.
" " 25th " "

2. In accordance with the telegrams noted in the margin, Mr. Fisher has been allowed to defer his departure from this country until October next.

ENCLOSURE.

ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT made the eighteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty nine, between THOMAS FISHER, of No. 28, Queen Elizabeth Street, St. John, in the County of Kent, of the first part, and the SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INDIA IN COUNCIL, of the second part.

Whereas the Secretary of State for India in Council has engaged the party of the first part to serve Her Majesty in India in the capacity and upon the terms hereinafter mentioned.

Now these presents witness and the parties hereto respectively agree as follows:—

1. That he the party of the first part will as soon as he may be directed by the Secretary of State for India in Council proceed to Madras for which purpose he will be provided with first class passage but not hotel accommodation or any other expenses incurred in the course of his transit.
2. That he will on arrival at Madras forthwith report himself to the Government there and will submit himself to the orders of the Government and of the officers and authorities under whom he shall be placed.
3. That he will employ himself honestly efficiently and diligently under the orders and instructions of the officers under whom he shall from time to time be placed as Deputy Superintendent and Compositor of the Government Press at Madras in which capacity he will discharge all duties appertaining to that office and also all such duties as are discharged by persons holding similar situations in India and do all things which may be required of him or which are necessary to be done in his capacity as aforesaid and will make himself in other respects generally useful as may be required of him and that he will whenever required proceed to any other part of India and there perform such or the like duties and that he will do his best to instruct in the mysteries of his art the natives and others who may be placed under him or may be working with him.
4. That he will not on any pretence absent himself from his duties without having first obtained the permission of Government or its authorized officers or in case of sickness or inevitable accident without forwarding a medical certificate satisfactory to the officers aforesaid.
5. That he will devote his whole time to the duties of the service and will not on his own account or otherwise either directly or indirectly carry on or be concerned in any trade or business whatsoever.
6. That he will when required take upon himself the responsible charge of Government money and stores and will truly and faithfully account for and pay over or deliver to the proper person all money, goods and stores which shall at any time come to his hands or be under his charge on account of Government.

7. That he will conform to all the rules and regulations of the department of the Government service to which he may belong and will obey all such orders and directions as he shall from time to time receive from any authorized officer of the Government.

8. That the said Government may at any time dispense with the services of the party of the first part on giving him six months' previous notice and may at any time discharge him from their service without notice in the event of misconduct on his part or of a breach by him of any of the conditions herein specified.

9. That the party of the first part will not relinquish the service of Government unless he shall have given the said Government six months' previous notice in writing of his intention to do so and that if he shall relinquish the said service within a period of five years from the date of his reporting his arrival at Madras as aforesaid after having given six months' notice as aforesaid he will forthwith on demand pay to the Secretary of State for India in Council the sum of fifty pounds (being the cost of his passage to Madras).

10. That if the party of the first part shall observe and comply with all the conditions of these presents there shall be paid to him for such a time as he shall be actually in the service and perform his duties a salary at and after the rates following viz. Rs. 333-5-4 per mensem for the first year Rs. 375 per mensem for the second year and Rs. 416-10-8 per mensem thereafter. No such alteration or increase in the rate of salary shall be made at the end of the first or any other year unless and until the officer under whom he may be placed shall certify that he has performed his duties to the satisfaction of such officer.

11. That the salary from time to time payable to the party of the first part shall be payable monthly in India commencing from the date of his reporting his arrival at Madras as aforesaid and ceasing on the day of his quitting the service or on the day of his discharge therefrom or on the day of his death if he shall die whilst therein.

12. That if at the expiration of five years from the date of his reporting his arrival at Madras as aforesaid the party of the first part shall at all times have performed his duties to the satisfaction of the Government or if within that period he shall be compelled by ill-health not brought on by his own neglect or carelessness or misconduct (of which the certificate of the proper Medical Officer of Government shall be conclusive) to quit such service and shall actually quit the same in India and up to that time shall have performed his duties to the satisfaction of Government he shall be provided with a free first-class passage to England provided that he claims such passage within three months from the determination of his service and leaves India within that time and otherwise as Government may direct.

13. That in case the Government shall retain the party of the first part in the service after the expiration of five years from the date of his reporting his arrival at Madras as aforesaid the period served by him under these presents (commencing only from the date of his joining his first appointment in India) shall count as service towards leave and pension under the Uncovenanted Service Leave and Pension Rules if under such rules leave or pension shall have been earned before the termination of his service under any of the provisions of these presents. Provided always that the Government shall have the right of modifying the said rules from time to time at its sole discretion and the party of the first part shall have no claim (except subject to such modification) to the benefits of either code of rules as it stands at the day of the date hereof and in case of dispute as to the interpretation of any of such rules or otherwise howsoever the decision of the Secretary of State for India in Council shall be conclusive.

14. That if the party of the first part shall be guilty of any insubordination intemperance or other misconduct or of the breach of any of the provisions herein contained whereby he shall be subject to dismissal he will pay to Government a sum equal to one year's salary in respect thereof and that if he shall absent himself from the said service without first obtaining permission as aforesaid or in case of sickness without forwarding a proper medical certificate to the officer under whom he shall for the time being be placed he shall pay Rupees 10 per diem for every day he shall be so absent and that if he shall at any time quit the service without the permission of the Government he will pay Rupees 10 per diem for every day between the day when he shall so quit the service and the day when his said service would have expired and that all these said several sums shall become due and be paid by the party of the first part as and by way of liquidated damages and shall upon demand be paid by him to such person as may be directed by Government to demand the same provided nevertheless that it shall be lawful for the Government to deduct the same out of any money which may be payable to the party of the first part on any account whatever.

15. That in any payments made in Great Britain under these presents notwithstanding any rule to the contrary the rate of exchange between England and India annually fixed by the Secretary of State for India in Council in communication with the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury shall be observed.

16. That the proceedings, letters and reports of the Governor-General of India in Council or of any of the Local Governments and of all other the Officers and Agents of Government or any copies thereof or extracts therefrom shall be sent to the Secretary of State for India in Council or to any officers or servants in the Indian service of Her Majesty in England or elsewhere in any way relating to the sums of money to be paid or allowed to the party of the first part or to his conduct or in any way relating to the premises shall be received as conclusive evidence of any matter therein contained in any action or in any legal proceedings by or between the parties to these presents or in any way relating thereto.

In witness whereof the party of the first part and Lieutenant-General Richard Strachey, C.S.I., and Colonel Sir Owen Tudor Burne, K.C.S.I., C.I.E., being two Members of the Council of India have hereunto set their hands the day and year first above written.
