THE HONORABLE THE COLONIAL SECRETARY, SINGAPORE.

SIR,

I am directed to forward, for the information of the Government of the Straits Settlements, a copy of Madras Government order, No. 474, of this date. The abandonment by the Government of Holland of negotiations for the establishment of protected immigration into the Dutch Colonies, as notified in the papers therein recorded, will necessitate increased vigilance in preventing the illicit emigration of Indian coolies thereto, and His Excellency the Governor in Council has no doubt that, as stated in your letter of 9th August 1887, No. 5654 of 1887, India, your Government will continue cordially to co-operate with the Madras administration in endeavoring to attain this object.

I have the honor to be,

As a large proportion of the unauthorised emigration to the Dutch Indies takes place via the Straits Settlements, special care should be taken to restrict the grant of certificates in Form B under Section VI of the rules published with G.O., dated 5th May 1887, No. 635, which exempt the holders from the restrictions imposed by the Straits Settlements Immigration Ordinance 1884, to persons who clearly do not belong to the non-laboring classes.

discharge or resignation does not involve any serious loss as there are so many outlets under private companies and in native states in which well educated men can always obtain remunerative professional employment.

5. I enclose a copy of the agreement under which civil hospital assistants have hitherto been entertained and have to request that it may, if necessary, be referred to the Government Solicitor to ascertain, whether a civil action might not be instituted with the view of compensating Government and punishing the offender, in the case of men refusing to proceed on duty when their services are urgently wanted elsewhere and any delay in joining may involve not only inconvenience but probable loss of life or other detriment.

6. In L.O. no. 263 of 15th March 1889 a new form of Bond for civil hospital assistants was communicated, but I am not sure that it will entirely meet such cases. It will also be noted that the term of compulsory service has been lowered from 7, which is the Madras period of covenant, to 5 years, and that there is no obligation on the subordinate, as a student, to faithfully pursue and complete the necessary course of studies.

be observed that he has not yet completed 5 of the 7 years during which he is under obligation to serve Government as a Hospital assistant.

his refusal. The Govt. Solicitor should advise what is the measure of damages.
I suppose we might claim some sum out of the cost of his education as the unfulfilled service bears to the full term for which he was bound. I don't say he is not worth powder & shot, but we might give him a taste of the civil suit?

The Govt. Solicitor might also advise whether it would not be advisable to have a specific sum by way of penalty in the bond which would be recoverable as liquidated damages, instead of the present indefinite claim.

Gentleman that his resignation
