how many persons this grievance affects, ed to pardon his intrusion, and will not his may be thought to be a matter strictly nment. Your Memorialist submits that ent would create a precedent for altering districts. Their prospects would depend t men who work for years in solitary up- making interest. Once overlooked always Madras than in provinces where there are officers live at the Sudder station. Such r got permanent promotion according to amachandra Aiyar's appointment as Sub- the station of any officer. There would merely be an alteration in the list of Sub-C appointed, he would get an increase of pay Government would save money.

11. The grievance is even more ticular one for Your Memorialist though l on Your Memorialist who has done more namely, twelve years; as he can prove if n ~~H. E. Stokes~~ Memorandum referred to in

To

The Most Honourable

The Viceroy and Governor-General of India in Council.

THE MEMORIAL OF WILLIAM HENRY WELSH, MOST RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH :—

That Your Memorialist is a Member of the Madras Civil Service, appointed in 1876.

2. That Your Memorialist has been superseded by an appointment in the Fort St. George Gazette, of 12th March 1889, whereby Mr. Cuddalore Ramachandra Aiyar has been appointed Sub-Collector of Coimbatore.

3. That for many years, and always, so far as the memory of the present and the past generation of Civil Servants extends, permanent promotion in the junior grades has been by seniority. As men of these grades are almost invariably officiating in a higher grade, the course of permanent promotion does not affect the acting appointment, or the duty actually done by them; consequently no question of merit arises, and the only instances where the order in the list is departed from are where men are serving in other provinces, or are absent on furlough, in which cases promotion of this kind would not benefit them, and they are temporarily passed over. Even in the lower grades of the Secretariat, permanent promotion has commonly been by seniority, for some years, but in the last two years, officers in the Secretariat have been promoted independently of those officiating in district appointments, such as that of Sub-Collector and the like.

4. That the gentleman referred to, in paragraph 2, is no less than 66 places junior to Your Memorialist, who believes that a supersession of this kind has never before occurred.

5. That not only Your Memorialist, but also Messrs. A. Thompson, Higgins, A. Brodie, Dumergue, Russell, Colmes, Wolfe-Murray, Joseph, Sim, Mounsey, Atkinson, C. J. Weir, Hammett, Mullaly, Twigg, Andrew, A. C. Tate, Manavedan Raja, Broadfoot, Moberly, W. Underburn, Rawson, Macleod, Hewetson, Venkata Jaga Row, Dance, Bell, Mir Sh.
