From

C. D. Maclean, Esquire, Collector of Tellers.

To

The Chief Secretary to Government, Public Department,
Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to enclose copy of Proceedings dated the 7th instant, declaring certain treasure found to be ownerless, and to request orders as to their disposal.

2. I would suggest that the gold coins be sent to the Madras Museum and the ear--ornaments sold in auction, the proceeds being credited to Government.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

Ph. A.

Assistant Collector for Collector.

3. No claim has been put in for the above treasure.

4. Under Section 9 of Act II of 1878, the treasure is therefore declared to be ownerless.

5. As the finders of the treasure failed to give the notice required by Section 4 of Act II of 1878, the treasure has become the property of Government.

Proceedings of the Collector of Almorah dated 7th May 1889.

On the 26th September 1888 some Coins were discovered in field No 276 A in the village of Pedoor by 3 boys. These boys reported the matter to their parents, and in consequence several villagers proceeded to the field and made a search for more Coins. On the following day the District Munsiff made an enquiry into the matter and received from the villagers a large number of Coins (about 100). On the 28th Idem, the Deputy District Officer visited the spot and 20 more Coins were discovered & also a gold ear-ornament. Altogether 117 Coins were discovered. The Coins are small Hindu gold Coins of some antiquity valued at 6 Annas each. The ear-ornament is valued at Rupees 2.

2. On the 20th November 1888, a Notification under Section 5 of Act II of 1878 was published in the Fort Saint George Gazette, calling upon claimants to appear before the Collector on the 18th April 1889 and make good their claims to these Coins and ear-ornament or any part of them.
