"fully satisfied" & his recommendation to the special assistant collector. On release from Mr Stuart's camp, Kullathumby was suspended for one month, and the time he took to join in excess of the authorised joining time was reckoned as absence without leave.

b. At the expiration of the period of suspension he reported himself at my office, and was posted to Ootacamund. In due course he was ordered on cholera duty to Bethamphore as he held no permanent appointment and subordinates were very urgently wanted there.

7. He was warned and received orders to proceed to Bethamphore several days before the date fixed for the departure of the steamer. As sometimes occurs, there was a little delay in getting the passage ticket, but civil apothecary Abdul Aziz who received his orders much later than Kullathumby and whose passage ticket was given to him at the same time in the office proceeded by the steamer of the 17th April.

8. The Hospital assistant had due warning and ought to have completed all his private arrangements prior to the day of embarkation,

would there can be no doubt that his failure to embark was intentional, at any rate he did not use reasonable and necessary expedition in his movements.
 Q. Of late, a good deal of difficulty has been experienced in getting civil Hospital assistants to obey orders promptly and as this man has been notoriously lax and insubordinate he is fully deserved, in my opinion, the punishment meted out to him. It must be remembered that prompt obedience of orders is most especially necessary as regards medical subordinates, as any delay may result in lamentable loss of life or unnecessary suffering to the sick.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,
 Your most obedient servant,

D. A. C. M. B. C. D. E.,
 Surgeon General

 The post sees no reason to interfere with the S.I.'s order. It is clear that the post's failure to embark for Behampore at the proper time was either intentional or due to gross negligence.
 The S.I.'s order is therefore justified. The Commissioner

3. He then sent on a petition to me begging that the order of transfer might be cancelled and two months' leave granted. Both requests were refused. He was relieved at Kannanore on the 29th November but instead of proceeding at once to the camp of the special assistant collector as directed, he went to Dindigul where he remained for some time, eventually reporting himself to Mr. Stuart on the 4th January 1889.

4. As the special assistant collector was then in a feverish district, the delay on the part of the subordinate in joining caused much inconvenience, and Mr. Stuart submitted a complaint on the subject to the Board of Revenue. It is unnecessary to reproduce here the whole of Mr. Stuart's letter further than to state, that he recommended as a punishment "for gross insubordination and disobedience of orders" that the Hospital assistant "be required to forfeit all pay and allowances from the 29th November 1888 to the 3rd January 1889, both days inclusive, he being regarded as absent without leave." As there was no one else to take his place, he was allowed to join on arrival at the camp, but Mr. Stuart further suggested that "on being released from duty with his party he should be suspended for two months on loss of full pay." THE SURGEON-GENERAL WITH THE

THE Chief Secretary to Government
 Public Department.

SIR,

In returning the letters referred under N^o 1461 of 18th May 1889, I have the honour to bring to the notice of the Right Honourable the Governor in Council, that 3rd class civil hospital assistant P. Kullathumby 22392 has committed a grave breach of orders, in addressing Government direct instead of forwarding his complaint through the head of his department, being his immediate superior.

Vide para 105, Section II. Volume I medical code.

2. This subordinate entered the service in July 1884 and for some time there was nothing special to record regarding the manner in which he performed his work. In November last he was doing duty at Cannanore and was ordered to join forthwith the camp of Mr. Castle Stuart Stuart at Neppadi S. Myraad. On receipt of this order Kullathumby promptly reported sick, but on examination by the civil surgeon he was found to be quite well.

Honored Sir

I beg most respectfully to bring a few lines to your honor's favour in a hospital assistant in the department, and my general now under 2 months suspension. I enclose copy of the Surgeon General's proceedings No 2462 dated 4 May 1889, herewith attached. I am suspended for missing the steamer that proceeded to Gopalpore on the 17th ultimo. I was not asked any explanation for missing the steamer. The passport was given in the office of the Surgeon General on the day the steamer left, that is on the 17th ultimo at 11 A.M. And it was clearly stated in the passport that the steamer will leave at 11 A.M. on that day, but I was told to try by the manager of the office. After this I left the office and went to Pudukottai, Madras, to take my wife and hastened to the Pier, and about this time, the steamer has left for Southern ports.
 The next day I went to the office and reported that

Proceedings of the Surgeon General with the Government of Madras dated 4 May 1889 3rd Class Hospital Assistant V. P. Mullaathumby No 392 was ordered to proceed to Berhampton on emergency duty and provided with a passage ticket by the steamer which was to leave Madras on the 17th April, but he failed to proceed by that vessel.

This is the first occasion that this subordinate has been found guilty of dereliction of duty. He was suspended for one month at the beginning of this year for a similar offence, but the punishment seems to have been lost on him. Hospital Assistant Mullaathumby is suspended from all ranks, pay and allowances for two months and at the termination of the period of suspension, he is directed to proceed to Berhampton at his own expense and report himself to the District Medical Officer.
