(Signed) J. MEREDITH,
Ag. Asst. Inspector-General of Police for Inspector-General of Police

ORDER—dated 22nd June 1889, No. 543, Public.

The Inspector-General of Police submits in the foregoing papers the statements of the working of the European Vagrancy Act, IX of 1874, for the year 1888. The following table compares the admissions into, and departures from, work-house during the year under review with those during the previous year:—

Admissions.	1888.		1887.	Departures.	1888.		1887.
European British subjects	8	5	29	On obtaining employment	9	26	26
Other Europeans	5	9	9	Released under section 16	4	18	18
Americans	1	1	1	Not accounted for	7	11	11
Australians	5	3	3	Remaining in the work-house at the close of the year	1
British subjects not coming under the foregoing classes	2	9	9
Remaining in the work-house at the beginning of the year	21	51	51
Total	21	51	51	Total	21	51	51

2. The large decrease in the number of admissions during the year under review, as compared with the years preceding, is a matter for satisfaction. Of the 19 vagrants admitted, four were sailors, five soldiers and one, an ex-railway servant.

3. Of the seven shown as "not accounted for" in the column of departures, one was transferred to the Lunatic Asylum, three were transferred to the Bombay work-house, and two were struck off the rolls under sections 14 and 24 of the Act. There was no case of deportation to England.

4. The total expenditure under the Act during the year was Rs. 2,462 against Rs. 4,292 in 1887. The average cost per work-house inmate was Rs. 103-13-7, the corresponding figure for the year previous being Rs. 63-13-5. The increase in the rate per head is apparently due to the large decrease in the number of the inmates, the cost of establishment, &c., being fixed charges.
