3. A notification was duly published under section 5 of Act II of 1878; but no claimants appeared on the date of hearing, the 11th instant; and I have accordingly declared the treasure to be ownerless, under section 9.

4. The finder's conduct in not reporting the find, and allowing the greater part to be made away with, deprives her of a right to a share of the treasure remaining. I am nothing of a humanitarian and have no idea of their date or value. I send them herewith in an insured packet, and suggest that they be put in the Government Central Museum.
 If examination shows that they are not worth being put in the museum they may be returned to be made over to the finder.

TO

THE CHIEF SECRETARY

TO GOVERNMENT

Public DEPARTMENT

MADRAS.

SIR,

I have the honour to report a case of treasure trove in the Manparai village, Mousiri Taluk for the information and orders of Government.

2. The treasure, 8 gold coins and 3 copper coins, of the estimated value of Rs 41-4-5, was found on the 18th October last by a girl named Kamakshi ammal in a poramboke land in the above village. The girl did not report the find; and it is pretty clear that some more similar coins,
