To

The Secretary to the Govt of India,
Foreign Department,
Simla.

Dated Bangalore, 5th April, 1889.

Sir,

I have the honour to address the Government of India on a question which suggests itself in connection with the working of the Indian Christian Marriage Act XV of 1872 (which applies in the Province of Mysore to Marriages between persons either of whom is a Christian subject of Her Majesty) as amended by section 30 of Act VI of 1886. The "Registrar General of Births, Deaths and and Marriages" is defined in section 3 of the Act 1872 to mean a Registrar General of Births, Deaths and Marriages appointed under Act VI of 1886.

Foreign Department Notification No. 342 I dated 25th January 1889 appoints the Registrar General of Births, Deaths and Marriages for the Presidency of Madras to be the Registrar General for Mysore, for the purposes of section 24 sub section (2) and section 32 of Act VI of 1886 only, but it is presumed that the Registrar General appointed under this Notification is the Registrar General of Births, Deaths and Marriages for Mysore for purposes of the Indian Christian Marriage Act also. If this presumption is correct, I beg to propose that in supersession of Foreign Department Notification No. 1762 G of 31st August 1875, the Registrar General in Madras be appointed under section 56 of the Act to be the officer to whom the Marriages

Marriage Registrars in Mysore shall send the certificates mentioned in section 54. It would be more convenient in all respects and less likely to lead to confusion if all registers and records under both the Christian Marriage Act and the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act were sent to one officer, especially as that officer is under present arrangements the Registrar General for Coorg also.

I have, &c.,
(sd) O. St. John, Colonel.
Resident.
