3 The undersigned takes the liberty of observing that he did not solicit the notes of G. B. dated 5th April 1888, No 370 Public, and subsequent papers, which he had not anticipated as his notes had not before been published. He thinks that the less any Editor's name is mentioned, the better will be the information gathered and recorded on the present occasion.

4 The following intelligence has lately come to hand about progress on the Government of India Economic Dictionary, only Indian official publication on a also that Divisional Officers (to whom the references were chiefly addressed) have not taken much pains with the reference. Not more than about 40 places have gone to any one Divisional Officer, and it is not too much to expect that a Divisional Officer should know or be able to ascertain something about the leading features of each of these. So far there has come in a good deal of Tahsildars' information about Hindu mythology, which is of not much interest and little about modern features of industry and commerce. In asking Officers for correct results made clear the minimum of trouble has been given in the official

Dr. Macleane is not mentioned as Editor in G.O. 5441 of 10.8 May 89. I think I should see no harm in the fact of his Editorship is well known.

2 Corrections of topographical matter are coming in from collectors and the work at present chiefly consists of incorporating them.
They do not contain many important deviations or additions. This is satisfactory if regarded as endorsing the work which is sent out. But it is possible
