GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—again G.O., dated 26th February 1889, No. 190, Public.

READ—also the following papers:—

From G. R. IRWIN, Esq., Junior Under Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Siria, the 30th May 1889, No. 2178-I.

No. 387 I, dated the 30th January 1889.

SUBJECT—Regarding the working of the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, VI of 1886, in Native States within the political control of the Government of Fort St. George.

I am directed to invite attention to the communication marginally noted, and to request the favor of an early reply.

From J. C. HANNYNGTON, Esq., Resident in Travancore and Cochin, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Trevandrum, 24th June 1889, No. 74.

With reference to your official memorandum, dated 17th instant, I have the honor to state that inquiries are being made with regard to paragraph 2 of the letter from the Government of India printed in G.O., No. 190, of 26th February 1889, and the result will be communicated to you as early as possible.

From G. F. T. POWER, Esq., Acting Political Agent, Kurnool, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Kurnool, 25th June 1889, No. 1905.

With reference to Government official memorandum, dated 17th instant, Public Department, I have the honor to state that no registers or records of births, deaths, marriages, &c., are maintained in Bangunapalle under Act VI of 1886, there being no persons of the classes to whom the Act applies in that State.

From W. J. RICHARD, Esq., Registrar of the Diocese of Travancore and Cochin, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Alleppey, 25th June 1889.

I write in reference to G.O., No. 190, dated 26th February 1889, which I had not looked upon as an inquiry demanding an answer from me.

2. I am unable to give any information as to the working of Act VI of 1886 in Travancore and Cochin.

3. The clergy of the Church Mission Society in Travancore and Cochin, who are the only ministers of the Church of England under the Bishop of this diocese, have had nothing to do with the registration of births, deaths and marriages, their duty being, on the performance of the sacred offices of baptisms, marriages and burials, to enter the same in the Church registers in their charge.

Handwritten notes and signatures in the left margin, including dates like 9/07 and 2/08, and various initials and stamps.

4. Since my appointment as Registrar of the Diocese, duplicate returns of these sacred offices for Europeans and Eurasians have been sent at the end of each quarter to the Chief Secretary to Government, and latterly to the Registrar-General.

5. There are difficulties in the way of giving up the registers—

(a) Some, if not all, of these registers are in use.

(b) They are required for reference.

(c) There are certain fees for extracts which the Church will lose if the registers are removed elsewhere.

6. As regards section 32 of the Act referred to, I purpose to bring before the clergy on 10th proximo the question of the desirability of sending to the Registrar-General's office the registers in our possession.

From H. ST. A. GOODRICH, Esq., Collector of Bellary, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Bellary, 29th June 1889, No. 1105.

In reply to paragraph 2 of the Government of India letter printed in G.O., No. 190, dated 26th February 1889, I have the honor to report that no person has been performing the duty of Marriage Registrar in the Sandūr State under Act XV of 1872, and there are no records of the nature referred to in paragraph 5 of clause 2 of G.O., No. 902, dated 15th September 1888.

From W. J. RICHARD, Esq., Registrar of the Diocese of Travancore and Cochin, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Alleppey, 19th July 1889.

In continuation of my reply of June 25th I have now the honor to ask—

1. Whether the Act applies to Native Christians who are subjects of their Highnesses the Maharajas of Travancore and Cochin?

2. Whether registers will be returned to the charge of the clergy who hold them, or certified copies of the same, for reference and for supplying certificates of baptism, marriage, &c.?

3. Whether registers of sacred offices now in use are required by Government, or only those filled up or antiquated or obsolete?

From G. W. PAWCETT, Esq., Political Agent for Pudukōta, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Trichinopoly, 23rd July 1889, No. 359.

Adverting to G.O., No. 190, dated the 26th February 1889 (Public), I have the honor to report that there are four registers of baptisms and marriages kept by Roman Catholic priests in the Pudukōta State, but no registers of either births or deaths. The priests keeping the registers do not wish to send them in original, but promise to send copies shortly. I shall send the copies to the Registrar-General when received, with the information required by G.O., No. 902, dated 15th September 1888, Public, paragraphs 5, III and IV.

ORDER—dated 6th August 1889, No. 657, Public.

The foregoing replies will be forwarded to the Government of India.

2. With reference to the queries made by the Registrar of the Anglican Diocese of Travancore and Cochin, this Government is of opinion that—

(i) the Act applies to none but British subjects residing in Native States—vide sections 2 and 11;

(ii) registers in actual use need not be sent to the Registrar-General until after the expiry of the period to which they relate;

(iii) where clergymen or other custodians of records forwarded to the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages under section 32 of the Act desire the return of such records in original, they should intimate their wishes to that officer, who will communicate them to the Commissioners to be appointed under section 33—vide paragraphs 5 (IV) and 5 (V), G.O., 15th September 1888, No. 902.
