SIR,

THE Governor-General in Council thinks it desirable, in order to remove any objections which may be felt by the clergy in accepting appointments as Registrars of Births and Deaths under Act I of 1886, that executive instructions should be issued for guiding the action of Local Governments and Administrations under section 12 of the Act. His Excellency in Council is of opinion that in making appointments under the sect, the "class of persons" for whom a clergyman may be required to act as Registrar of Births and Deaths should be defined to be those at whose baptisms or nerals they have themselves officiated. It is believed that this course is already followed in some provinces, but the Government of India thinks it necessary to invite the attention of all Local Governments and Administrations to the matter in order that the practice may be uniform throughout India.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

A. P. Macdonnell
Secretary to the Government of India.
