is not so much distance.

As soon as I can travel,
I shall go down to Madras for change of air, & hope to be allowed my full journing time, before going to Cuddapah: as I need it.

With kind regards,

Believe me

Yours sincerely

H. Tremenhare.

Chittoor.

My dear Price,

Crook will be here by Wednesday night.

There is only one case for Sessions which should have begun today, but I have been in bed with dysentery and Launcester has forbidden me going down to Court till Thursday. If I am much better tomorrow however,
I may do that case, but
