SIR,

I have the honor to report that 2nd class hospital assistant N. Ranga Saamy naidu no 181 attached to the Central jail Secimbore who was selected, in common with other Telugu subordinates, for sarnie duty in Ganjam has declined to proceed and tendered his resignation vide copy enclosed.

2. He has since disappeared and failed to acknowledge letters from this office. Having completed 11 years' service, he is not liable to any pecuniary penalty and any punishment I could inflict would be utterly inadequate for such grave misconduct. I have learned that similar difficulty is being experienced in Bombay in the administration of civil hospital assistants.

3. Such disgraceful conduct on the part of the hospital assistant at such a crisis deserves, in my opinion, to be visited by — the

the highest ~~punishment~~, and I therefore strongly recommend that he be dismissed from the service and declared unfit to hold any appointment under Government.

Sir,
With reference to the Extract from orders No. 109 dated 12th July 1889 by the Surgeon General with the Government of Madras, transferring me to Berhampore, I beg to inform that I was in the District of Ganjam from July 1882 to December 1886. After severe illness I was recommended sick leave by the then District Surgeon Dr. Vangeyzel, the present Chemical Examiner. I suffered from enlarged spleen and my child is still suffering from the same complaint. As I firmly believe that my going again to that District would endanger my life I beg to request you will kindly accept this as my resignation to the service.

I beg to remain &c.
