SIR,

In continuation of my letter No. 74 E.
18-4, dated the 4th May last, I am directed to forward for the information of His Excellency the Governor General in Council a copy of the No. 6 (Cabinet), dated the 25th May 1889. } letter noted on the margin from His Excellency the Governor General of Netherlands India, specifying the points objected to by the Netherlands Government in the Draft Ordinance and Convention for regulating emigration to the Netherlands.

East

because my Government felt justified in expecting that the periodical visiting of the districts, where British Indian labourers are employed, by British Consular Agents or other British officers might ultimately lead to undesirable interference with the interior administration of this colony.

Desirable as in other respects a convention of the kind proposed would be, the fact of its containing some provisions, which did not seem consistent with our dignity and our autonomy has prevented His Netherlands Majesty's Government from pursuing the matter and entering into negotiations with your Lordship's Home Government.

Accept the assurance of my highest consideration.

I have &c.

to inform Your Lordship, that the draft convention would in general have been acceptable but for the articles XVII and XVIII.

The first would have compelled the Netherlands India Government to enact and maintain statutory provisions, which do not fit in, and are even at variance with the principles of our system of laws; at the same time entering into all kinds of particulars, that according to our views ought not to be provided for by the statute.

The stipulations of the Labour Ordinance mentioned in this article would further have involved expenses to a not unimportant amount, the urgency of which seemed doubtful and the British Indian immigrants would by virtue of these stipulations have obtained a position entirely different and a great deal more favourable than that of other coolies, possibly on the same

My Lord,

I had the honor of receiving your Lordship's letter of May 17th last, which I regret to have been unable to answer sooner.

Deferring to your Lordship's wish, to be made acquainted with the particular provisions of the draft convention for the regulation of emigration from British India to the Netherlands East-India
