Hon Sir I sincerely beg you'll pardon me for the intrusion on your valuable time.

Having heard of your good & charitable feelings towards the poor and needy I cast myself on your Clemency and trust you'll treat my Case as an Exceptional one and worthy of your Merciful Consideration.

Being out of employ I am trying my best to procure some sort of work all my endeavours have met with perfect failure my enclosed papers will speak for me, for want of work myself and poor family are suffering and undergoing great starvation misery and privation, I humbly beg you'll weigh my poor case and give me a small help to enable me and my poor family to make a meal, I trust this my humble petition will be granted this great charity and your benevolent kindness to poor souls shall always appreciate it with heartfelt gratitude until there is life in this mortal frame.
