GOVERNMENT HOUSE,

27th Octr 1889.

before Your Excellency the above circumstances of his case, and implores the mercy of Your Excellency in permitting him to be taken back into the service, or, failing which, to have his dismissal overruled and his resignation already tendered accepted.
For which act of charity, your memo-rialist shall, as in duty bound, ever pray.

irreparable extent, sent in a petition to the Secy. to Surgeon-General with the Govt of Madras, pointing out the sufferings he had already undergone and begged of him to transfer him to some other district in the Presidency. The authorities, not having taken his case into consideration, insisted on his going to that district. Your memorialist, therefore, in the interest of his health, had no other alternative but to tender his resignation, much against his will, but is now informed that he has been dismissed the service by the Government for insubordination.

That your memorialist has a large family to support and that by his dismissal he would be ruined for life. He most humbly begs to lay before three months' sick leave which was subsequently extended to ten months. That at the expiry of the leave he was sent to do duty at the General Hospital, Madras where he fell ill again and was an in-patient in the Eye-Infirmary from the 15th December 1887 to 3rd February 1888 for a severe attack of malarial Amblyopia which permanently weakened his eyes; and that after his discharge from the Hospital, he was with the Trigonometrical Survey party for 9 months, after which, was transferred in August 1888 to the central Jail Hospital Coimbatore where he remained till July last.

That your memorialist having got an order suddenly in July last to proceed to the Ganjam district, a place in which he and his family had before frequently suffered from malarial fever, by which their constitution had been already impaired to an irreparable

To

His Excellency The Right Honorable Lord Connelley, G. C. I. E.

Governor of Madras

May it please your Excellency.

The humble memorial of A. Rangaswamy Naide, Hospital assistant of the Madras Subordinate Medical department lately attached to the Central Jail Hospital, Coimbatore, respectfully sheweth:

That your memorialist joined the said Medical department in 1878 and after having been in charge of some dispensaries in the Tanjore district till about the middle of 1882, was thence transferred to the Ganjam district where he was in charge of several dispensaries for nearly four years. That while in that district he was frequently taken ill with mala-rial fever and suffered much from a severe attack of Beri-beri; in consequence of which he was forced to apply for those
