7TH NOVEMBER 1889, No. 898, PUBLIC.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From Dr. E. HULTZSCH, Epigraphist, Archæological Survey of Southern India, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Bangalore, 1st October 1889, No. 264.

I have the honor to submit my progress report for July, August and September 1889. Since forwarding my last report (No. 192, dated 6th July 1889) to the Director-General, Archæological Survey of India, the manuscript of the additions to my volume of South Indian Inscriptions has been set up; 36 sheets are now struck off. The next few sheets and the remaining slips are nearly ready, and an alphabetical index of the proper names will be forwarded to the Press as soon as the last sheet of the text is printed. The preface and the title page are already in type, and are shortly expected back from Dr. Burgess, to whom they were sent for approval.

2. The manuscript of a second volume, which will contain the inscriptions of the great temple at Tanjore, will, I hope, be ready for the Press about New Year 1890. The transcripts of the Tamil inscriptions which it will contain occupy about 300 folio pages. The final revision of the translations, and the working out of the introductory remarks, will be undertaken as soon as the correction of the proof-sheets of the first volume is finished.

From Dr. E. HULTZSCH, Epigraphist, Archæological Survey of Southern India, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Bangalore, 29th October 1889, No. 283.

With reference to your letter, No. 3078, dated 28th instant, I have the honor to enclose a copy of my progress report for April, May and June 1889, which was forwarded to the Director-General, Archæological Survey of India, on the 6th July 1889. In his letter, dated Edinburgh, 7th August 1889, Dr. Burgess said: "I don't think you need send me your progress reports in future: they may go direct to Government." Accordingly, I addressed my next progress report (No. 264, dated 1st October 1889) to Government; but I failed to send a copy of the preceding one because I was under the impression that Dr. Burgess had already forwarded it.

ENCLOSURE.

Copy of letter from Dr. E. HULTZSCH, Epigraphist, Archæological Survey of Southern India, to the Director-General, Archæological Survey of India, dated 6th July 1889, No. 192.

During this period I was almost exclusively engaged in the correction of proof-sheets of my volume of South Indian Inscriptions. At the present moment, pages 1 to 104 are struck off.
