For orders

It seems to me it can be done without making a special case for them a technical breach of the law; if the Hon. Mr. Trotter will take a license from ^{Sir R.} Bentinck & remit to attend their civil business, before embarkation. As they were not sent before the Protector at Calcutta this precaution is necessary. The Hon. Mr. Trotter probably broke the law in embarking them at Calcutta without sending them before the Protector there, but that is a point which need not be noticed.

Your Obedient Servant

J. J. Rother

he has seen & examined these coolies, on his visits to the depot, & they have one & all expressed their willingness to emigrate, & he is quite willing to allow them to embark provided the Port. permits it as a special case.

5. The steamer in which I hoped to dispatch these 29 coolies is expected here on Saturday next & will leave on Sunday. In these circumstances & as these coolies have cost about Rs. 3000 ^{to collect} I beg that the Port. will permit them to embark as a special case. I have already issued instructions that no coolies from any other Port. any in India are to be sent here.

6. The Port. of Bengal kindly permitted a steamer to proceed with 500 coolies from Calcutta to Mauritius, who had passed through an ~~ex-~~ amine of measures in the Depot at Calcutta, ^{on my application} & as the question raised in these papers is of far less consequence I trust that permission will be granted to embark these coolies, especially as our season here closes.

& they were sent to Madras by me to be embarked ~~there~~ here, as under the Emig.
Act. 21 of 1853 I was opinion that emigrants could be embarked from either Bombay, Madras or Calcutta, provided the law had been complied with as regards their registration.

This question was considered by the Magistrate of Calcutta when registering the coolies & he concurred with me, & in proof of this I enclose here state that the registration forms were forwarded by him to the Protector of Emigrants here & they are now in his possession.

3. As the sole object of the registration ^{of coolies} by the Protector of Emigrants in India is that no deceit or fraud should be practised on the coolies & induce them to emigrate I respectfully submit that Mr Richard Barlow can anticipate himself in this point quite as satisfactorily as the Protector at Calcutta & in the event of the death of any steamer he can also permit any sum left by the deceased to their heirs in India.

Port of Madras

Sir,
Adverting to your Port Order No 876 dated the 5th inst. which has been forwarded by the Protector of Emigrants at Madras to the Madras Mauritius Super. Agent, I have the honour to respectfully to request that the question of the Cawnpore coolies that are now in this Depot being permitted to embark for Mauritius may be reconsidered.

2 There are only 29 coolies from Cawnpore now in this Depot, & they have been registered at Cawnpore under the enclosed licence from the Protector of Emigrants at Calcutta.

SIR,

Referring to L O N^o 876 dated the 5th Instant, I have the honor to observe that there are 29 Emigrants from Jamaica now in the Mauritius Depot, who have expressed their willingness to embark before me, and as their return to Brugal would be a very heavy charge on the Mauritius Government - while the Honorable Mr Trotter Special Commissioner for the Mauritius Government is willing to take them - both contracting parties thus consenting - I would respectfully suggest
