Office Note

The Superintendent Govt Press submits for favorable consideration an application from T. Thumboosamy a Piece Work Compositor, for reinstatement to his post from which he was suspended from 12th December 1887 for having applied for the benefits of the Insolvent act. The court discharged him free of all debts.

2. The debts were caused by signing promissary notes jointly with his wife, who was a stake-holder of a Chit-Fund, and which failed through non-payment of loans by benefited subscribers. The liabilities and assets amount to Rs. 1869-8-6, and Rs. 1659 respectively; the undersigned is of opinion that it is not
