Restorer - Benigna Restorer - of a great family sunk to Oblivion, and as our kind and benevolent Patron-deity. I have no other source than your Excellency from which I expect hope and success in this world. It is my dear mother that often prevailed upon me to appeal to your Excellency for help and mercy.

Ever praying for your Excellency's perfect sound health and prolonged life, and most confidently relying on your Excellency's wonted generosity,

I beg ever to remain Your Excellency's most obedient and humble servant;

J. R. Ramachandra Row. B.A.,
No. 20 South Madar Street, Triplicane.

4 November
1889.

My conception of my position. My young father had forcibly snatched away from me by the cruel stroke of death, and my grandfathers have all been removed from this transitory vale; and I am left an orphan and a sorrowing melancholy monument of a family.

Thus I am thrown on this broad world without to lend me a helping hand & raise me to some degree of distinction which is meet with the honor and dignity of my ancestors. I am subjected to two contradictory feelings, - one, the burning desire which withholds me from taking up any post from Government on Rs 20 or Rs 30, and the fear of being stigmatised by my relatives as degrading the name of my forefathers by accepting such low offices.
The other, the eager desire to disperse the painful melancholy feelings of my afflicted mother & her that I ^{am} competent to call myself her son. I therefore most ardently and with the hope of success appeal to your Excellency's humanity and generosity & kindly condes-cend to my case and favour me with an employment in the Government. I look to you for assistance.

who, in addition to the pensions they get from the Mysore State, are also Commissioners in that State. Venkammah Borge, my aunt and the widow of the eldest son of Mr. Purniah receives a pension of Rs 7,000 per annum from that State. My grandfathers all occupied very high positions under the British Government; one of them Mr. Guindappa Row was Head Shirastadar - a position of great power and influence in his time - at Tanjore; the second by name Sreenivasa Row was a Deputy Collector at Tanjore and then at Mayavaram. His ability in discharging official functions, his honesty and his integrity, have been acknowledged by the Government. And the 3rd named Balaji Row was also Deputy Collector of Mannargudi and other places. He is equally famous for his ability, honesty & integrity. And my maternal uncle Purushothama Row who is now receiving a pension from the Arni State, was a Dewan of that place. My father Runga Row was a graduate of this University and I extremely regret to say that he died at the early age of 32, just when he received an order of appointment to the Deputy Collector's post. And I am happy to inform your Excellency that I am also a graduate of this University.

Although my narration would weary your Excellency, yet I am sure that this will give

His Excellency Charles Bourke Lord Cannemara G. C. S. I., C. S. E., & C. S. I., Governor of Madras.

May it please your Excellency.

I most humbly request your Excellency to excuse me the liberty I take in introducing myself on your Excellency's notice; but your Excellency's well-known humanity must plead my apology.

I am a member of the historically famous family of Dewari Purniah of Mysore. Your Excellency will be aware of the useful services rendered to the Government by my renowned ancestor Mr. Purniah and the Government has also expressed its gratitude by preserving ^{his} statue in the grand array of its best and worthiest servants in the Church of Fort Saint George.

Mr. Purniah has left 2 grandsons - Mr. Purniah, and Mr. Parichnamurthi - who are Jaghirdars of Chandur Taluk, and SUBJECT.

Requesting that the salary of her late husband may be paid to her uncle M. Sundramoorthy Aiyar employed in the Paper Currency Office

JA
I think the uncle should be intimated by letter before any thing is done. At present we have a letter purporting to come from the widow of the deceased, asking that the salary of her husband may be paid to her uncle.
We shall be glad to pay it to his uncle if we can find that there is an uncle employed in the Paper Currency Office.
But we don't know that there is a widow of the deceased.

W. B. A.

It is known that the deceased's father & uncle are employed in the A. G. office since the son's death the father has not attended office.
Perhaps there is no objection to the money (Rs 20-2-0) being paid to the uncle, & if so shall arrange that the money be paid to him.

you will be good enough to order the Office.

The uncle referred to has come over from the Beel Gudi's office. He says he is employed there and draws a salary of Rs 50. He further states that the father of the deceased is also employed in the same office & has been absent since his son's death. He assures that the letter is genuine coming from the widow of the deceased. Perhaps the balance of pay might be handed over to him the A.M. & myself witnessing his signature to the receipt.
