JANUARY.

Bangalore Pensioner's Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

Reviewing the accounts of the — for 1888 and sanctioning the full grant of Rs. 300.

ORDER—dated 29th January 1889, No. 96, Public.

The accounts of the Bangalore Pensioners' Widows' and Orphans' Fund for the year 1888, furnished with the foregoing letter, show that the receipts during the year amounted to Rs. 6,131-7-11, against Rs. 7,711-15-10 of the previous year. Including the balance (Rs. 216-14-4) with which the year opened, the total receipts amounted to Rs. 6,348-6-3. The expenditure aggregated Rs. 5,950, against Rs. 8,283-6-6 in 1887, and the year thus closed with a balance of Rs. 398-6-3.

2. The loan balance at the credit of the fund on the 31st December 1887, including a sum of Rs. 107 due as interest, was Rs. 11,843-13-4. New loans to the extent of Rs. 4,033-11-0 were issued during the year under review and the repayments amounted to Rs. 4,426-8-6. The loan balance at the end of the year would thus be Rs. 11,450-15-10. The difference between this amount and that stated in paragraph 2, viz., Rs. 11,823-15-5, which probably arises from arrears of interest being carried to the credit of the loan account, should have been explained.

3. The total assets of the fund, including loans and interest outstanding, amounted to Rs. 12,381 at the close of 1888, against Rs. 12,255 on the 31st December 1887. The liabilities amounted to Rs. 137.

4. Of the 24 widows borne on the fund on the 1st January 1888, three died during the year, and there was one admission, leaving 22 on the rolls on the 31st December. The number of orphans was 4, one having been struck off on attaining the age of 16.

5. The death of one of the subscribing members has reduced the number of these from five to four.

6. The payment of the full Government grant of Rupees 300 to the institution is sanctioned, the total amount of private subscriptions being in excess of this sum. The continued increase in the amount subscribed by the outside public is satisfactory.
