Resolution

Chamber of Commerce

Madras 15th November 1882

(1) The Chamber of Commerce, Madras having been informed that Mr. Charles Duth C.S. Collector of the Customs of the Port of Madras has retired from the service of Madras and vacated the appointment he held in the Presidency resolves to place on record that as Collector of the Customs his official intercourse with the mercantile Community has been marked by a series of eight years in which he has given much satisfaction to the Chamber that that intercourse has always been marked by courtesy on his part coupled with a desire for a liberal interpretation to the spirit of the Legislature which it has been incumbent on him to see obeyed. As Chairman of the Harbour Trust, he has been habitually zealous for the public good, and desirous to promote harmony; and has rendered important assistance in placing the administration of the Port on a sound footing. As Collector of Madras and ex-officio Collector of Income Tax duties of a delicate nature have devolved upon him which the Chamber has every reason to believe have been discharged with the tact and consideration for private susceptibilities which have been enjoined by the

of India:

(2) It is also resolved to the above resolutions to in Council and to beg the forward a transcript of evidence that the Community with which Sir R. been brought into closest contact during the latter period of his service is not in the zeal and urbanity which in its opinion have derided his labours as an officer of the ent of Madras.

icate a copy of the Governor Government with Sir Richard Barlow
the non-official and Barlow has
ent of Madras.
