GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—again G.O., dated 2nd November 1870, No. 595, Pension.

READ—also the following paper:—

From T. W. RAWLINS, Esq., Accountant-General to the Government of Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 12th October 1889, No. I.A.E.-266.

I have the honor to state that in Government Proceedings, No. 595, dated 2nd November 1870, it was directed that "in case of the retirement of an officer on application for pension an acting incumbent should be appointed on acting pay until the final orders of Government on the application for pension were passed, and that the officer appointed should then (if he had proved himself qualified for the post) be confirmed retrospectively and allowed full pay from the date from which the pension took effect, or from that of retirement in case gratuity only were allowed to the retiring incumbent." This order has been in force for nearly 20 years and has produced no advantages at all commensurate with the work thrown upon my office by the necessity of twice checking the pay and allowances due. It also operates hardly on officers who are thereby kept out of their legitimate promotion for months. Cases are very rare in which it has been found necessary to annul a retirement. When necessary this can be done by an order in the Gazette. So far as I am aware there is no corresponding rule in any other presidency or province, and I venture to request that it may be laid before Government for reconsideration.

ORDER—dated 21st November 1889, No. 1394, Pension.

It was ruled in G.O., dated 2nd November 1870, No. 595, Pension Department, that no permanent arrangement should be made on retirement of an officer until the final orders of Government on his application for pension were passed, the object being to secure his appointment for the applicant in case his restoration was found necessary. This order has been in force for 20 years; but the cases in which it has been found necessary to direct the restoration of a retired officer have been very rare, and as the Accountant-General states that it has thrown additional work on his office with no corresponding advantage, the Government sees no necessity for retaining it. It is accordingly hereby cancelled. In the very few cases, however, in which a retired officer may be restored instead of being granted pension, the appointment made on his behalf will be cancelled.
