Note. I submit that it will be very undesirable to return these books, which will amount to breaking up the Manual Library, at the present stage of the Glossary, when not a day passes that a dozen books or more are not taken down from the shelf for reference. The books were selected with much care at the beginning from different sources, the Museum being one. The Museum library is a quasi-government library, being subsidized.
A draft is proposed.

Order, 13th July 1890

31st Jan 1891
The work for which the books were obtained is all in hand, and it is not convenient to return them at present.
