Madras.

Sir,

$\frac{1}{3}$
I have a brother of mine, whom I wish to send up for competing for the Civil Service of India. I wish to know whether he will be considered eligible, and not knowing who the proper authority is to apply to, I have ventured to address you on the matter. He was born in Mysore, but I contended that he

SUBJECT.

Enquiring whether his brother who is born in Mysore will be considered eligible for the Civil Service of India.

Recd. 2/9.1.90 No 11.

The petitioner should address the Resident in Mysore on the subject.
For order.

For orders with reference to the rules in G.O. No. 889, d/10.9.88. No ruling on the particular point in question can be traced. At page 48 of their report the Public Service Commission say that the admission to the examinations for the Civil Service of India of Native States is a question of political nature and one for the consideration of the Government. In G.O. 1228 d/9.8.79 it is stated that persons born and domiciled in tributary Native States shall be considered 'natives of India' for certain purposes.

In the present case the question to be decided is whether the applicant brother is a 'natural born subject of Her Majesty' or not - and in similar cases can be traced. If he is, he is eligible to appear, but if it is held that he is a subject of the Maharajah of Mysore the case is one for Special Order.

The words "natural born subject of Her Majesty" have as far as my recollection goes always been in regulations issued by the Sec. of State with regard to the C. S. Immigration The restriction of the G. I. Act G. O. 112, 889 dated 10th Dec 1918 therefore to the point of determining whether a Native of the is a "natural born" or otherwise appears to be that the case under consideration is a that the applicants were born within the U. S. dominions It is submitted that the applicant has referred to the Resident in Mexico, and further to the fact that the informed that he had been to the Mexican authorities that he is in the son or grandson of a person born in the U. S. dominions. This apparently all that the Sec. needs to do.

I would simply direct the petition to address the Mexican
 I have no doubt that the they are eligible to compete
