Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue).

Dated 28 January 1890.

No.

Miss

Mr. D. W. Bliss

Mr. W. S. Whitehead.

READ the following—

1 Endorsement of the Collector of Kistna dated 21st
July 1889 No. 44 68.

2. The following Board's reference thereon dated 6th
August 1889:—

The Collector is requested to state whether the officers concerned have other debts besides those referred to and if so a full schedule of their debts should be forwarded as required in para 5 of Board's Standing Order No 252 (Board's Proceedings dated 5 February 1889 No. 80)

3. Endorsement of the Collector of Kistna dated 27 December 1889 No. 87.

Resolution—

In the first paper read above the Collector of Kistna reported that the pay of one H Ramachandrarayya

Head

on Rs 30 a month has been in attachment for over two years and that the balance of the debt still remaining to be paid was Rs 102 and recommended that the Head clerk may be allowed to remain in service

2 The Board called upon the Collector to furnish a full schedule of the debts of the Officer. Board's reference dated 6 September 1889.

3. The second paper read above is in reply.

4. It appears the balance of Ramachandraiyar's debts for which his salary has been under attachment is now Rs 428 that of this amount Rs 373 are stated to have been paid by ^{Ramachandra Iyer's} ~~his~~ eldest brother whose salary has also been under attachment. There is therefore only a sum of Rs 55 still due under this head. But there are other debts to the extent of Rs 1619 for some of which suits have been filed. The total amount of the liabilities at present is Rs 1674. From the remarks in the second letter it appears that the judgment creditors require only Rs 10 from ^{Ramachandra Iyer's} ~~his~~ salary and Rs 2 from that of

of his elder brother. To discharge the principal debt alone completely at this rate it will take $\frac{1674}{12}$ or $139\frac{1}{2}$ months or 11 years 7 months and 15 days

The nature of the appointment held by the Head clerk is not however of such a character as exposes him to temptation from his poverty. And as the Collector recommends that the clerk should be retained in Government service the Board think that he may be allowed to remain
